TRENTON, N. J., Mar. 14.—Activities of an underworld "mob" who flew east from Denver, Colo., were being investigated in connection with the Lindbergh baby kidnaping, Colonel H. Norman Schwarzkopf, state police commander, announced today.

Information was also received that a blond baby resembling the stolen Lindbergh infant was delivered to a stewardess aboard the liner City of Baltimore sailing from New York the day after the kidnaping, it was officially asserted. The liner is due to arrive at Hamburg, Germany, today.

The official midday communique said:

"Information was received that a suspicious gang from Denver, Colo., had come east by plane and were engaged in mysterious activities in and around New York.

"This is being investigated and to date nothing of importance has been ascertained. This investigation will be continued with a complete checkup of all their movements.

"Information was received last night that a blond baby resembling the Lindbergh baby was delivered to a stewardess aboard the S. S. City

PA NEWC OBSERVES

The present cold snap has hung on much longer than the one experienced in March last year. Today marks the eighth day of the first wintry snap we have had this year, while in March, 1931, the cold spell lasted only six days. National weather reports given Sunday were to the effect that several more days of cold weather are in store for us.

Pa Newc observed a machine which had been abandoned on the hill near the Cathedral on Highland avenue this morning. It must have been frozen up pretty tight for the owner to have left it there, as it could have easily been run down over the hill to a downtown garage.

FIRE DESTROYS TWO TAYLOR TWP. HOMES EARLY THIS MORNING

Two homes were destroyed and a third endangered and damaged by a fire, the cause of which has yet to be fully determined, which started in the pantry of the John Dando property, Warner alley extension, Taylor township, better known as "Sheep Hill", and spread to the adjoining property of Patsy Ross, shortly after 1 o'clock this morning.

The loss is estimated at $4,000 on the Dando home and contents with some insurance carred on the same and $2,500 on the Ross property, which was unoccupied at the time of the fire. Whether or not there was any insurance on this property is not known.

Third Home Endangered.

The home of Ernest DeCarlo, immediately adjoining the destroyed properties, was endangered for a time, but a change in the direction of the wind, together with the efforts of a bucket brigade organized by the men and boys of the district, prevented it from being damaged to any great extent.

Constable Arthur Mee called for aid from the city fire department, but none was given and all that could be done was the formation of a bucket brigade to prevent the spread of the blaze to other than the two properties destroyed.

Discovery of the fire was made by John Dando, owner of the property in which the fire started. He awakened his wife and other members of the household and they made their escape to the outside in safety. Later Mrs. Dando was severely cut as she broke a window of her home in an effort to get some clothing for her baby.

Radicals Crushed By Election In Germany Von Hindenburg Wins

Personality Of President Von Hindenburg Wins Over Adolf Hitler

Germany's Aged Leader Assured Election In Run-Off April 10

By EDWARD L. DEUSS
International News Service Staff Correspondent

BERLIN, Mar. 14.—The personality of President Paul Von Hindenburg, pitted against Adolf Hitler and Germany's restless masses in the German republic'e strangest election, emerged victorious today as the country's moderate parties crushed their rising radical opponents.

Although failing by the narrowest of margins of obtaining the clear majority which was needed to re-elect him, the 84-year-old president was virtually assured of being maintained in office in the run-off to be held April 10.

Party Lines Crossed

As voters crossed all party lines to defend or challenge the Hindenburg-Bruening rule, the veteran soldier-statesman polled more than eighteen million votes and failed of election by only 168,453 votes.

Provisional final returns were announced today as follows:

Von Hindenburg (incumbent) 18,661,736.
Hitler (Fascist) 11,328,571.
Thaelman (Communist) 4,971,079.

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Mar. 14.—Well sir, had a couple of mighty interesting and charming callers out at the ranch Friday afternoon, Secretary Kellogg and Senator Gillette of Massachusetts. Couple of mighty fine old men that have played quite a part in our history the last few years.

The thing I liked about their visit they had no opinion to offer on "when we had scraped bottom." Most every man you meet can tell you who will be our next president, but these ignorant, uninformed gentlemen had no idea.

I have always believed that if the very proper inducements were presented that you could smoke Calvin out. Mr. Gillette thought no, Mr. Kellogg, yes.

I have told many alleged jokes on both of them, and it was gratifying to know I could do so and still retain their friendship.

Yours,

Will Rogers.

Combine Forces For Passage Of Tax Boost Bill

Democratic Leaders Join Hands With G. O. P. Chiefs For Tax Bill

JOUETT SHOUSE URGES SUPPORT

President Hoover Reported As Satisfied With Revenue Measure

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Mar. 14—Leaders of the Democratic party today joined hands with powerful influences in the Hoover administration to assure passage of the $1,096,000,000 tax boost bill in the house.

While warring elements in the house sparred for advantage during a day's lapse in debate, spokesmen for both the administration and the Democratic party entered actively into the campaign for votes.

Calls For Action.

Jouette Shouse, chairman of the Democratic national executive committee, called upon house Democrats to redeem the nation's credit and save it from the consequences of a deficit for which he held a Republican administration responsible.

Following the unqualified endorsement of the bill by Secretary of the Treasury Ogden Mills, administration leaders personally sought support for the measure. President Hoover is reported satisfied with the bill although he has made no public statement.

Urges Support.

The ways and means committee will be called together by Acting Chairman Crisp (D) of Georgia to consider minor amendments to the manufacturers' tax. These changes, he believes, will send the bill through the house with a big majority.

Shouse disclosed that he personally is requesting Democrats to vote for the bill. He endorsed the manufacturers' tax as a necessary means of raising revenue.

Expect Many Will Be Given Employment By Legion Campaign

On Saturday, practically every home in New Castle was visited by a Boy Scout who left a pamphlet describing the unemployment plan of the American Legion and assisting organizations. In that circular was a coupon in which the householder pledged himself to have certain repair work done around his home and employ some idle men to do it.

The circulars will be left with the householder until Wednesday when a group of men and women will call at the homes and lift them. It is urged that householders do not lose their circulars and that they will be prepared to turn them back to the collectors on Wednesday signed and ready for work.

At the Legion Unemployment Bureau on Neshannock avenue there is a file of workmen of all kinds who are prepared to do what ever work is necessary. Skilled and unskilled labor alike are registered and can be sent out on a job on short notice.

Co-operating with the movement, five of the building trades of the city have agreed to an average 36 cent reduction in wages for 90 days. Hence it is a matter of economy to the householder to get whatever work he needs done, done now.

PUT OUT FEED FOR BIRDS HERE

One New Castle resident today suggested that it would be a fine idea for New Castle folks to put out some feed for the birds, now that the ground is covered with snow, and it is difficult for the birds to find anything to eat.

Bread crumbs, grain of any kind, and tallow were suggested as good bird feed.

Adjournment Of Congress June 1 Aim Of Leaders

Hope To Adjourn Congress Before National Conventions Meet

MAJOR MEASURES SLOW UP PROGRESS

World Court Fight Will Be Protracted One Is Indication

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Mar. 14.—In the face the turbulent battles over the new tax bill and President Hoovers' proposal for American adherence to the world court, administration leaders today began negotiating a tentative agreement for adjournment of congress June 1.

Their hope for success in adjourning before the national conventions meet in June rested in enactment of ten major appropriations and the new tax bills, since all other measures could be abandoned until after the election. The administrations' insistence upon disposition of the world court issue at the present session may disrupt their plans.

Protracted Fight.

The world court fight will be protracted. Thus far, the fight has split the ranks of court adherents, with the irreconcilable opposition literally sitting on the side lines as spectators. The row developed when some Democratic adherents of the court broke with others over interpretation of the Root formula for American adherence. Some said it changed the terms upon which America first decided to enter the court; others saw no distinction.

Gradually, opinion has solidified that Elihu Hoot, a former Republican secretary of state, discarded the old fifth reservation in negotiating his formula for American entry to the court.

ST. LOUIS, Mar. 14.—For complicity in the kidnaping of Alexander Berg, wealthy fur dealer, Edward Barcume today faced a prison term of 25 years.

He was found guilty by a jury yesterday and the 25-year term was attached to the verdict. Conviction of Barcume, a former convict was the second since the seizure of five men accused of engineering the kidnaping last November.

Berg was held for $50,000 ransom and released on a promise to pay, according to police.

Firemen Save Rural Home Today

Prevent Spread Of Flames In Butler Avenue Extension Residence

Firemen from Central and the Fourth Ward departments saved the home of John Semansky of Butler avenue extension from destruction at 6 o'clock this morning, when they quickly extinguished a blaze which started from an overheated furnace. The damage amounted to approximately $125, assistant fire chief, H. Clare Stockman reported.

The blaze started above the heater in the basement and burned its way through the floor of a bedroom above igniting a trunk and some clothing in the bedroom.

The booster tank on the Pirsch truck and several cans of soda and acid were used in extinguishing the blaze. Had the fire gained further headway before discovered, it would have been difficult to save, it is believed, because of a lack of water pressure in that district.

Powers Pens His Final Farewell

Clarksburg's "Bluebeard Slayer" Scheduled To Die Friday Night

SANITY TEST IS HIS ONLY HOPE

(International News Service)

MOUNDSVILLE, W. Va., Mar. 14.—Following the issuance of a 1300-word farewell statement late Saturday, Harry F. Powers, Clarksburg killer, lolled quietly in "murderers' row" today with only a sanity test between him and the noose.

Unless a sanity examination proves him insane, he is to be hanged at 9 p. m. Friday for the slaying of Mrs. Dorothy Pressler Lemke, Northboro, Mass., divorcee, whom he was convicted of killing in his "murder garage."

Powers' statement charged he was convicted by public opinion before he went on trial and boasted that "I do not fear death."

Dr. W. D. McClung, state alienist, was expected to conduct the sanity test today or tomorrow.

Prohibition Issue Squarely Before Congress In So-called "Test Vote"

RESULT SHOWS DRYS VICTORS BY 227-187

Hopes Of Wets Are Dashed By Outcome Of Vote This Afternoon

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 14.—Prohibition forces maintained control of the house this afternoon when they defeated a motion to consider the Beck-Linthicum "home rule" resolution submitting the question of repeal of the 18th Amendment to the states in the spirit of a referendum.

The wets mustered 187 votes—by far the greatest strength they have shown since prohibition—but 227 voted against bringing thhe amendment to the floor for a record vote.

The vote smashed the hopes of anti-prohibition forces for any favorable action in the present session looking to repeal of the prohibition amendment.

Under Anti-Gag Rule

The vote, which came after but 20 minutes of debate, was made possible under the "anti-gag" rules of the house, which permitted 145 members to bring to a vote the question of whether the resolution would be considered.

Perry Highway Home Destroyed By Fire Sunday

Family Is Away At The Time And Neighbors Save Some Of Contents

Fire, believed to have been caused by a defective chimney, on Sunday afternoon completely destroyed the home of Fay Wimer on the Perry Highway, near Dixie Inn. The fire was discovered about three o'clock in the afternoon by Howard Cooper of Dixie Inn, who with others rushed to the Wimer home and managed to save some of the contents, before the fire had gained such headway, as to make it impossible for them to get into the house.

The Wimer family was away at the time and did not know of the destruction of their home until their return. The los is estimated at approximately $5,000. It is not known whether the loss is covered in any part by fire insurance.

INVESTIGATE HOMESTEAD CHURCH FIRE

Homestead Fire Is Being Probed; Loss Half Million

St. Mary Magdalene Catholic Church Destroyed By Flames Sunday

SIX FIREMEN ARE SMOKE VICTIMS

Power Lines Severed As Twin Steeples Crash To Pavement

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Mar. 14.—Emergency railway and electric line crews were ordered out today to restore service disrupted last night when fire razed the St. Mary Magdalene Roman Catholic church in Homestead, suburb, with loss estimated at $500,000. Six firemen were overcome by smoke battling the blaze. Five others suffered slight hurts.

Power lines were severed when twin steeples of the church crashed into the streets, throwing the upper part of the borough into darkness. Hundreds of spectators who gathered to watch the spectacular blaze, were endangered by the toppling masonry.

Origin Is Unknown

Origin of the fire was still undetermined today as borough fire officials opened an investigation. The fire, which started near a furnace in the rear basement of the church, was discovered by the Rev. David Shanahan, pastor. He immediately summoned Homestead fire companies who turned in an emergency call shortly after they arrived at the blaze.

Five additional companies from Munhall, four from Pittsburgh, one from West Homestead and another from Rankin raced to the scene. Hampered by clouds of dense smoke the firemen donned smoke masks and attempted to carry hose lines close to the source of the fire by crawling. Unable to work effectively, firemen smashed a stained glass window and entered the church. Flames licked up rapidly into the body of the edifice, however, and drove the firemen outside. For nearly three hours they were forced to remain at a distance, playing hose lines on the blazing structure.

CITY DETECTIVE LOGAN IS DEAD

culmination of a sickness suffered at that time.

Associated for approximately 25 years with the city police department, as well as having served as county detective and in other lines of duty that had to do with police work, he had conducted the work of his chosen profession on the highest standards and in such a manner as to gain for him the esteem of all with whom he came in contact. His passing from life leaves a place in the police circles of the city that will be hard to fill.

His first work along the lines of his life work was that of a deputy sheriff, he being appointed to that position when he barely reached his majority.

Served His Country.

He served his country in the Spanish-American war and the Philippine Rebellion, with company B, tenth Pennsylvania volunteer infantry, seeing extensive service in various scenes of activity in those memorable wars.

Detective Logan first served on the New Castle police force during the administration of Mayor John Jackson by whom he was appointed. Later in 1906, during the administration of Mayor M. Louis Hainer, he was lieutenant of police. In 1907, when Attorney Charles H. Young became district attorney, Logan was named as county detective and served in that capacity for three years, returning to the city police force later.

Breaks Up Blackhand.

It was during the period of his incumbency as county detective that he gained widespread prominence in his chosen profession, for it was during that period of time that the black hand society, which had been so active in the Hillsville district, was broken up through the activities of the district attorney, County Detective Logan and others associated with them.

He was named as city detective during the last two years of the administration of Mayor Walter Tyler and had continued in that position up until the time of his death.

Mr. Logan was born July 20, 1877, at Pittsburgh, the son of Richard and Fannie Grey Logan. Practically all his life was spent in this city. He was a member of Trinity Episcopal church and New Castle lodge No. 21, Fraternal Order of Police.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. Emma E. Logan; one daughter, Miss June Logan, and two brothers, Richard and Attorney Edwin K. Logan, both of this city.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday, March 15, 1932, at 2:30 p. m. at the family residence, 12 West Wallace avenue, with Rev. Philip C. Pearson, rector of Trinity Episcopal church, in charge. Interment will be made in Oak Park cemetery.

RADICALS CRUSHED BY ELECTION IN GERMANY; VON HINDENBURG WINS

Duesterberg (Nationalist) 2,517,376.

Winter (Independent) 181,115.

The Nezi headquarters at Munich announced:

"The steel helmet organization (who backed Duesterberg yesterday) will merge with the Nazis on the next ballot. We shall win over enough Von Hindenberg supporters to win this time, when Hitler will get 16,300,000 votes."

Monarchism Dead Forever

BERLIN, Mar. 14.—Monarchism in Germany is dead forever. Von Hindenburg and Republicanism remain.

This was the interpretation placed today on the verdict of the German people in Sunday's elections, in which President Paul Von Hindenburg overwhelmingly defeated Adolf Hitler and at least temporarily crushed the rising tide of Fascism in Germany.

Realizing the futility of any attempt to defeat Von Hindenburg in the run-off election on April 10, necessitated by the fact the president failed of obtaining a clear majority by less than 200,000 votes, Alfred Hugenberg, leader of the Nationalist bloc, today proposed a scheme to do away with the run-off and save his own party from another disaster.

Hugenberg proposed a change in the constitution of the Reich to enable the Reichstag, by a two-third majority, to pronounce Von Hindenburg elected immediately without the formality of a run-off.

He imposed the condition that new Reichstag elections be called simultaneously with the Prussian diet elections on May 8.

The suggestion, however, was flatly rejected by the government.

"We won't be so obliging," said a spokesman for Chancellor Heinrich Bruening, "Now that Hugenberg and Hitler have been licked."

A check-up of the votes showed that Hitler's National Socialist party lost votes in every state where it had been in power with the sole exception of Thuringia.

Hugenberg's proposal was made as an alternative to the suggested "Harzburg coalition," whereby all Nationalist parties would combine in the run-off to defeat Von Hindenburg, running some member of the former German Imperial family as candidate.

Von Hindenburg's huge vote, however, assured his success in the run-off, as a simple plurality will be all that is needed for his election.

Von Hindenburg Surprised

Berlin, Mar. 14.—President Paul Von Hindenburg, who sat up until 11:00 p. m. last night to hear over the radio the results of the presidential election, long enough to know he had a safe lead over Adolf Hitler, did not learn until today how great a victory he had scored.

He expressed great satisfaction over the outcome, and assured his supporters he was willing to run on a second ballot. Prior to the election there had been rumors that the aged statesman would decline to run a second time if not given a clear majority in the first vote.

HOUSE MEMBERS WILL VOTE TODAY ON LIQUOR ISSUE

since the amendment was adopted 12 years ago. Jubilant drys let loose cheers and applause as the vote was announced.

The vote carried with it the political fortunes of many members who have been "on the fence" on the prohibition question. Both wet and dry organizations have served notice that their attitude in the next campaign will be based upon the vote of members today.

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 14. The prohibition issue was placed squarely before the House today for the first time since the Eighteenth Amendment was written into the constitution.

All other business was temporarily shunted for a quick and decisive vote which will reveal the extent to which sentiment for a change has penetrated the "popular branch" of congress.

Far Reaching Effect

While the immediate question before the house was whether the Eighteenth Amendment in revised form should be resubmitted to the states in the form of a referendum, the vote is expected to have far-reaching political effect.

The congressional life of many members in doubtful districts may depend upon their decision. The vote, too, may have a telling effect upon the action of both the Republican and Democratic National conventions.

Sport Debate

Forced into an unwilling house by the petition of 145 members—made possible under "anti-gag" rules adopted when the Democrats took control—the tissue was to be decided after a scant 20 minute debate.

The specific question before the house was: Shall the judiciary committee be discharged from consideration of the Beck-Linthicum resolution for a constitutional amendment?

The Resolutions

The resolution provides:

1. Repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment by the substitution of a revised amendment.

2. Gives "home rule" to states by permitting them to decide whether or not they want legalized liquor traffic.

3. Provides the revised amendment shall be considered in state constitutional conventions, thus making possible a referendum in the election of delegates to those conventions.

4. Protects the dry states by empowering congress to prohibit shipment of liquor into them.

Plan Inspection Of Connoquenessing Dam

Penn Power System Dam Among Those Listed For State Inspection

There are 5,121 dams in Pennsylvania, 553 of which are of sufficient importance to warrant their inspection regularly. They must be kept in good condition and not allowed to deteriorate, according to Secretary Lewis E. Staleny of the Department of Forest and Waters. Among the dams is the Pennsylvania Power Company dam, Connoquenesing Creek.

All of the 5,121 dams are sources of potential danger unless properly maintained. Some of them store so much water and are so located above centers of population as to cause untold loss of life and tremendous property damage in case of failure, according to Charles E. Ryder, chief engineer of the Water and Power Resources board. This board also has supervision of the construction of all dams within the state under permits required by law.

Inspection of the Pennsylvania Power Company dam in the Connoquenesing creek and the other 552 dams will be under the direction of George S. Beal according to information from Harrisburg. Beal is the of the bureau of dams and heads a staff of expert engineers with long experience in this work.

The inspection of dams throughout the State is done periodically, and the most important are inspected each year or oftener, as conditions warrant. The owners are required to make any repairs or alterations considered necessary to safeguard the loss of life and property. The inspection will begin about March 15 in some of the southeastern counties of the State, and will be continued until the inspection of the 264 dams listed for examination this year is complete.

INDIAN SLAYER GOES ON TRIAL AT GLOBE, ARIZ.

ernment on a charge of murdering Henrietta Schmerler 25, a Columbia University co-ed, on the Apache reservation the night of July 18 following a romantic horseback ride in the moonlight.

Sentiment of the Indians was divided.

Opinion Divided

Many indicated they believed Seymour should be hanged for betraying the honor of the tribe. Others shrugged their shoulders in bewilderment as if they found the ways of the "pale faces" strange.

Robert Gatewood, star government witness, broke eight months' silence to tell Defense Attorney John P. Dougherty his connection with the case.

He and Seymour, Gatewood said, had called at Miss Schmerler's little cabin, in an isolated sector of the reservation, and Seymour planned to ask Miss Schmerler to accompany him to an Indian dance, Gatewood, he said, departed.

Later, Gatewood said, Seymour declared he had killed Miss Schmerler when he had turned down her pleas to marry her. Seymour, Gatewood said, told him he had taken a knife away from Miss Schmerler. Seymour is married, and is the father of two young children.

JAPANESE FORCES TO BE WITHDRAWN

over the interpretation of the resolution, China demanding that only "complete withdrawal" of Japanese troops be considered, while Japan insists the parley be held to consider the manner of withdrawal.

Japan's latest note, believed to be in the hands of Sir Miles Lampson, British minister to China, who has been acting as intermediary in the recent negotiations, said:

"Japan does not wish to regard the reservation of W. W. Yen (Chinese League of Nations delegate) as changing the meaning of the league resolution of binding her in any way.

"Regarding the expression 'complete withdrawal' she can hardly agree to interpret this from the league resolution as it stands.

"Japan is prepared, as said before to enter at any time into negotiations on the basis of the league resolution. It would seem more likely to expedite the matter if both sides stood simply on the resolution itself, avoiding at this stage bringing in matters and conditions extraneous."

SWICK VOTES WITH DRY BLOCK

(Special To The News)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 4.—In the first clear-cut prohibition vote in the House of Representatives in twelve years, Representative J. Howard Swick today voted with the dry bloc. Mr. Swick voted with the group which was successful in preventing consideration of the Beck-Linthicum resolution. The resolution would seek to amend the constitution so as to permit individual states to determine whether they would be wet or dry.

Colorado leads in the production of sugar beets in the United States. Its output in 1930 was $3,299,000 short tons.

You see, other nations must let Japan do as she pleases because there's no advantage in siding with a weak nation.

FAITH
FROZEN ASSETS VIS ESTATES

Many thousands of dollars are lost every year in discounts and carrying charges by those who have charge of the estates of the deceased of our country. The law giving these people a year to settle an estate does not mean that the cash on hands is to lay in banks or to be used for their own personal use, thereby losing discounts and penalties on bills that were contracted by people expecting payment within a reasonable length of time.

FEDERATION TO GIVE PATRIOTIC PROGRAM

The March meeting of the Lawrence County Federation of Women's Clubs to be held Tuesday in the George Washington Junior High school, is in charge of the Educational Department, with Mrs. Charles Greer, chairman, and will undoubtedly prove of unusual interest. The program is being given in Celebration of the Washington Bicentennial, and the committee in charge have arranged something unusual in the way of entertainment.

The Board session will take place at 11 o'clock in the morning, and at 12:30 o'clock luncheon will be served. Promptly at 2 p. m. the program will be presented.

Several members of the American Legion with J. Glenn Berry in charge, together with a group of Boy Scouts of this city, will lead the entire group in saluting the flag. Following, the George Washington Junior high school orchestra will play "Stars and Stripes Forever." The next feature, will be the singing of "Yankee Doodle" and "Hail Columbia".

The Music Club members too will play an important part in this special program, by giving several numbers, the first to be: A piano duet, "Marche Triumphal," Rathburn, by the Misses Barbara Schultz and Martha McGill, talented pianists. Two vocal solos by Mrs. William J. Caldwell, "Beneath A Weeping Willows Shade" by Francis Hopkinson, and "The Second Minuet" by Maurice Besly will be given, with Miss Schultz who will give as her selection "Beethoven Sonate In G" playing her accompaniment.

In bringing this memorable program to a close, a pageant entitled "The Making Of The Flag" by a group of students of the Washington school who display excellent talent, will be given under the direction of Miss Betty Glover. All will join in singing the "Star Spangled Banner" as the closing feature.

It has been through the splendid co-operation of B. K. Thacker, principal, that this entertainment has been made possible, and it is expected a large number of interested folks will witness this event, which is open to the public.

EVENING BRIDGE AT FIELD CLUB THURSDAY

There will be an evening bridge party held Thursday at the Field Club house for the entertainment of its membership. Cards will be in play at 8:30 o'clock, and following the contest. Lunch will be served Hosts for this occasion will be announced later.

Sicilian Girls Club

Miss Nula Venturella of the Wilmington road will entertain the Sicilian Girls Club in her home Wednesday March 23. They met recently with Sara Mulone as hostess in the home or Mrs. Charles Gurgiola on Hazelcroft avenue. The hours were spent informally with cards, and the prize for honors was awarded to Marian Gennaula. Later, lunch was served, the tones being carried out in green and white suggestive of St. Patrick's day. Miss Nellie Cucubellis was a special guest of the members.

POPULAR THROUGH ATTACK

AN ENGLISH political writer expressed surprise a few weeks ago when the news came that President Hoover was certain to be renominated by the Republican party.

Innocently, he explained that he had been given to understand that Mr. Hoover was "the most unpopular man in the United States." How could such a President go before the people again? Yet Americans in London had assured this commentator that Presidents are always renominated, if they desire to be, so that he supposed the report must be true, although he professed himself quite unable to understand the mysterious ways of American politics.

One of its ways is to help a public man by attacking him so unreasonably and maliciously as to relieve him from a part of his temporary unpopularity. This has begun to happen in the case of Mr. Hoover. Even Democratic correspondents at Washington are taking note of the fact that his prospects seem distinctly brighter than at the beginning of the year. One reason for this is that he has been made the subject of indiscriminate partisan abuse. Take, for example, the long tirade which Senator Connally of Texas got off his chest in the Senate recently. Ostensibly he was retorting upon Senator Moses because of certain remarks which that irritating gentleman had made about Speaker Garner, also of Texas. But it was in substance a long arraignment of the President, holding him responsible for everything which has happened during his Administration. The only reply vouchsafed to it by Senator Moses was that "there has beat upon my devoted head for an hour and a half a storm of sound and fury which gives color to the prevalent belief that in the Senate one speaks without limitation of time and with no relation to the subject before the house." He did not defend the President, for whom he personally disavowed any authority to speak.

Senator Moses might have alleged, as more than one disinterested observer at Washington has asserted, that the Republican outlook is improving partly because the Democrats have offered no consistent program of their own and are putting forward no inspiring leader. Quite the other way, they seem to be engaged in killing off the leaders they have and casting about for a mediocrity. The more shrill and violent they are in their outcries against President Hoover, the better do they make his chances appear, compared with their own indecision and bitter quarrels within their own household.—New York Times, (Dem).

DANGER IN EXTREMES

"Every transaction must be profitable to all concerned—producers, vendors, workers and customers—in order that maximum progress may be made. Sales at or below cost are as harmful to general business as are sales at excessive prices."

This is one of the patent conclusions arrived at by an expert industrial engineer, who was commissioned by a manufacturers' association to investigate the dangers and benefits of price cutting. He estimates that to advance the general level of prices to insure legitimate profits for all concerned would necessitate adding 15 billion a year to the earnings of American industry, an addition which he feels would not materially affect the cost of living.

Pertinent at this time are a few other points made by this expert: "Profit," he says, "is an obligation to society and in business is as important an element as cost. Business of any kind to exist must make money. In the craze to deflate the word profit has become a reproach.

It has become apparent to all that the pendulum of prices has swung as far to the extreme of deflation as it had swung to the extreme of inflation before the crash in 1929. Deflation may go too far, just as inflation did during the boom. The tendency to cut prices, wages, salaries and profits may go beyond bringing relief and tend to become itself an abnormality. There is such a thing as reducing to the point of emaciation.

There should be such a thing as a happy medium.

FAT AND SKINNY

Getting thin or getting fat. How those two bugaboos do hang over the American people! Verily no blue law could cause more discomfort.

Mary adores chocolates, but she'll tell you mournfully that she can't eat them because she's getting too fat.

Dad doesn't really mind his big paunch, but so darned many people say, "You aren't so slim as you used to be, are you Jim?" that in desperation he takes to gym, suffers the tortures of using long unused muscles, and lives on a slice of toast and water just to put the silencer on that "getting fat" speech.

And how the fat ones do envy the thin ones who the doctor orders to drink lots of milk, eat beefsteak and all the candy they want.

But suppose you are a thin one and hate milk? Still you will suffer the nauseating stuff just so you won't have to hear people say "My goodness, girl, you're nothing but a wraith."

Somehow or other, one can't help thinking that old Gibbon, who wrote "The Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire" is to be envied for his courage. The doctor told him, so for the story goes, that he'd die if he kept on getting fatter. He required a specially built chair big enough for two ordinary folk. But he said he'd be darned if he'd give up eating the way he wanted to, and so he died, glorying in his fatness.

THE PRINCE OF WALES AND PUBLICITY

It is becoming increasingly evident that the Prince of Wales is what Americans delight to call "a regular fellow." He attended the inaugural banquet of the Company of Newspaper Makers the other night, participated in by 300 editors, and made it plain to them that he was not at all averse to being made the subject of newspaper publicity.

"Fleet street and Shoe lane," he said, "have always been very good friends to me, and if I can repay part of my debt by affording the newspaper-making craft with a bit of additional copy I am only too glad to do so." That sort of frankness is refreshing in an age of sham. One of the penalties of high office is the inevitable publicity that goes with the job; but when that is accepted in such a philosophical spirit as has been taken by the Prince of Wales, half of the annoyance is dispensed with.

Somebody has told Miss Democracy that this is leap year.

Twenty Years or So Ago
Remember John Bunny?
Remember Baloon Ascensions?

By MARSHALL MASLIN

Remember that old Gilbert and Sullivan song, "When I Was a Little Lad, Twenty Years Ago?" Remember that sweetly sentimental song? Think back to 20 or 25 years ago and remember how life used to be. . . . I remember, all in a jumble: "The Cubanola Glide" . . . "Alexander's Ragtime Band" and the great row over that wicked dance, the Rag. . . . Sheath skirts. . . . "Skidoo!" . . . Sensen on the breath. . . . Pompadour hair cuts for men. . . . A skinny girl at the movie house singing "Red Wing, My Pretty Red Wing." . . . "Oh, you kid! . . . "None of your beeswax!" . . . The market hunters going up and down the street crying "Wild game! Wild geese! Wild game! . . . Mothers doing their own baking, making their own lard at home on the kitchen stove. . . . Pe-ru-na. . . . Carrie Nation in full cry with her hatchet.

I remember: All that excitement over the Jeffries-Johnson fight. . . . The Panama Canal a-building. . . . Harry Thaw. . . . Little girls begging for permission to "put their hair up," crying because they couldn't wear long skirts. . . . Young ladies making designs on leather and wood with hot needles. . . . Hayrides. . . . Acetylene lights on automobiles. . . The game of Five Hundred . . . "The Shooting of Dan McGrew". . . Splendid works of art like jars covered with cigar bands and shellacked. . . . Boys playing with wireless. . . . Fierce arguments over the dangers and advantages of the parcel post: "Every small town merchant will be run out of business." . . . Graustark. . . . Traveling stock companies at the Opera House. Thrillers like "The Octoroon" and "Uncle Tom's Cabin" with bloodhounds. . . Ella Wheeler Wilcox: "It's easy enough to smile when life goes along like a song."

I remember: "Should women vote? Do they want to vote? When women vote politics will be purified." . . . Squeaking squawking phonographs. Flying machines. . . . Stickpins. . . . The sport who wore a ring on his necktie. . . . Lace curtains drying on frames on the lawn. . . . The fleet going round the world. . . . "Her petticoat is showing. . . . "Does your mother know you're out?" . . . Carbon street lights. . . . .Coal oil lamps. . . . Wonderful fluffy valentines. . . Grand Sunday afternoon death-defying aerial gymnastics and BALLOON ASCENSION.

Certainly, I remember. Don't you? And how old do these memories make you feel?

"JUST MY LUCK"

"Just my luck" exclaims someone—you have heard it said often.

It is a sort of complaining habit that some folk have.

Of course they refer to ill luck—they never would say such a thing if good luck happened their way.

But why not as readily refer to your good fortunes?

You get lucky breaks but you take them as a matter to be expected.

It is your due, is the attitude you take when you get what you want.

But how you can sputter and lament when you have a bit of misfortune.

If you are always standing with a chip on your shoulder and expecting a turn of bad luck, after a time your friends will begin looking for it for you.

They will be constantly asking you 'what's happened today?'

And if you are not careful you will get the reputation of being "Hard Luck Charlie" or some such name characteristic of your misfortunes.

So don't harp on your ill luck too much.

People don't like to hear your complaints.

And the more you complain the stronger will be your conviction that the world is using you ill or that you are incompetent to run your own affairs.

Critics Defended As Guides To Selection Of Good Plays

Editorial Writers Believe They Are Not Responsible For Failure Of Productions Which Lack Elements Of Success

Editorial writers of the country protest against the suggestion of Representative William I. Sirovich of New York that dramatic critics of the newspapers arbitrarily contribute to the failure of plays which might otherwise have received the approval of the public. His proposal for a professional license is believed to lack merit or legal authority, but the call of the critics to Washington resulted in no protest.

Proposals of the sort made by the New York Representative are classed by the WALLA WALLA BULLETIN as "a constant threat to an unmuzzled press" and by the SPRINGFIELD (Mass.) REPUBLICAN as "challenging the guarantees of free speech and a free press." While it agrees that "there is much incompetent and smart Alec criticism, no doubt," the Republicans points out that "the observation applies to many other fields than that of the theatre," and maintains that "Mr. Sirovich has not found the cure for it." The ASBURY PARK PRESS contends that "it is impossible to improve the theatre business by concealing from the public how bad the plays are."

With satirical reference to Dr. Sirovich's picture of the critics as "assaulting instead of defending the drama, beating it down with savage ridicule, and holding an unholy high carnival every time a victim is carted off to the storehouse," the BALTIMORE EVENING SUN replies: "They have brought things to such a pass in New York, for example, that there are only about forty legitimate theatres open, and a new show can take in only about $44,000 a week, while a comedy, after fifteen weeks, has to scrape along with $25,000 for nine performances. Indeed, the drama critics have made it practically impossible for any other than reputable, first rate plays to make money."

"There is hardly any exception," says the COLUMBUS OHIO STATE JOURNAL, "to the rule that stage productions live or die because of their own merits, or lack of them. Habitual theatregoers are never unduly influenced by critics. And if from certain performances which are unspeakably bad the critics can get the inspiration to be more entertaining, even if destructive, than the performance could ever hope to be, then that is a 'break' for that part of the theatregoing public which reads the criticisms."

If the opposition to the critics had its way," according to the FORT WAYNE NEWS-SENTINEL, "there would be a tragic weakening of the sentinel forces which warn the public against the spoiled partridge under the spiced brown sauce in which many current offerings are bathed." The MANCHESTER LEADER declares: "Dr. Sirovich must realize that if a vehicle has true merit, or if it possesses those qualities which endear it to the public, it will survive, whether or not it pleases the reviewers. Furthermore, it would be gracious of him to admit that these critics have made a study of the drama, that, by and large, they are qualified for the positions they hold, and that they write what they believe to be honest words. He will find it difficult to prove that they 'pan' for the sake of 'paning.'"

The WASHINGTON EVENING STAR feels that "the proposal that dramatic critics be licensed before they are allowed to practice has much in its favor," and suggests that "complete freedom after a high standard has been met is probably the best, and the only wise system of censorship." As to the working out of such a plan, The Evening Star offers the opinion: "A thoroughly competent critic would be deaf to the appeals of the box office. Certainly he would scathingly condemn productions which now good naturedly are allowed to pass." The BOSTON TRANSCRIPT suggests: "The public may approve of sheer rubbish. Sometimes it does. Popular approval does not necessarily prove that the critics are wrong." The NEWARK EVENING NEWS feel sure that "good plays succeed."

"Dr. Sirovich was not content," remarks the SPOKANE SPOKESMAN-REVIEW "to describe the critics as 'destructive.' He called them 'graduate describers of prize-fights and horse races,' which is hostile language, indeed. A dramatic critic is a sensitive soul, living in the higher stratosphere of the intelligent, and should be treated with tact. No doubt some of the critics are glad to meet with the patents committee, as they were asked to do. Although their skill lies in manipulation of the written word, they must have a certain amount of skill at oral disputation, and welcome the opportunity to be part of an all-star cast. They profess to love the theatre quite as ardently as any member of Congress, and consider themselves the drama's preservers, not its destroyers. The war will probably turn out to be a competition in saving the stage, and the stage can use any amount of saving.

"It is mainly the New York critics" observes the CINCINNATI TIMES-STAR, "whom Dr. Sirovich wished to confront. Let it be said in their defense that a play is like a tart, and one sickens of tarts as a steady diet; in the height of a New York season, with each week witnessing a number of first nights, there is something like a case of critical indigestion in all the best aisle seats. Let it be said, also, that the New York critics see a number of unsatisfactory plays which never reach provinces to afflict the critics there. These considerations may explain, but they do not excuse, the ruling vice of metropolitan criticism. Its exponents tend to be exhibitionists, writing about themselves rather than about the show, and scattering vicious wise-cracks—the kind sure to provoke an admiring giggle—instead of aiming at a measured opinion."

"It is flattering to the critics," thinks the PROVIDENCE BULLETIN, "to attribute such powerful influence to their opinions. We doubt if even the proudest of them has suspected himself of such power. And it is very decent, indeed, of Mr. Sirovich to invite them down to Washington to spend a day with him at the public expense. They might, to help pay back the expense of the journey, give us their devastating opinions upon the show which Mr. Sirovich and his 434—count 'em—434 fellow Representatives are putting on for the dear public."

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

DRAMATIC OR NOT?

It was Editor Dana of the New York Sun, who defined "news" one day to a "cub" reporter: "If Jones' dog bit Smith, it is not 'news'." but if Smith bit Jones' dog, it is 'news'."

It has been reserved for a public school teacher to define "Drama".

The English class had been assigned the task of writing four lines of dramatic poetry. One youth wrote:

"A boy was walking down the track.
The train was coming fast.
The boy stepped off the railroad track
To let the train go past."

The teacher informed him his masterpiece contained no drama; was too commonplace to be interesting. After much concentration, the youthful poet submitted:

"A boy was walking down the track,
The train was coming fast,
The train jumped off the railroad track
To let the boy go past."
Well, how about it?

BEAUTY

If I were an artist I wouldn't paint
Women past thirty, except for hire.
Beauty by that time is growing faint,
Though prejudiced lovers still admire.

I'd choose for my subject of paint and brush
A glory untarnished and undefiled,
And try to capture the radiant blush
On the sweet, pink cheeks of a little child.

I gazed on them all at the beach one day,
Women of culture and beauty rare
But a three-year-old tot in the sand at play
Made the only unspoiled picture there.

Fancied Acid Condition Of Body Disturbs Many, Dr. Clendening States

Letters From Readers Giving Self-Diagnosis Assert Belief That Constitution Is Out Of Balance

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

One out of about every hundred letters from readers which come to this desk states the opinion of self-diagnosis of the writer that he or she has an acid condition of the body.

This common belief concerns one of the most complicated phenomena in the functions of the body. Our fluids are neutral—neither acid nor alkaline, or, to be exact, only very slightly alkaline—in health, and the body fights fiercely to preserve that neutrality. Even the slightest disturbance of the balance causes grave symptoms, and when the scales are considerably unbalanced it is almost impossible to restore them, and death rapidly ensues.

We have various ways of measuring the amount of acidity of the body fluids and of the accumulation of one form of reaction over another. These ways which have been devised are indeed extremely accurate. One is by measuring the carbon dioxide capacity of the blood plasma. As this is lowered it indicates a change from neutral to acid in the body fluids.

One of the things which causes such a change is lack of oxygen delivered to the cells in sufficient amounts. When this occurs an acid which is always formed from muscular activity—lactic acid—and which is normally burned by the oxygen in the tissues accumulates.

Thus in states of low blood pressure—below 70 systolic—there is a gradual lowering of the carbon dioxide capacity of the blood plasma and this gets worse as the blood pressure falls. In states of surgical shock the condition is so severe as to be probably the most important factor in the fatal outcome so frequently in such cases.

Acidosis of an entirely different type is that seen in diabetes. If sugar is so insufficiently burned in the body that there is not a coincident burning of fats, the fatty acids, which are incomplete stages of fat combustion, accumulate and this acidosis results in diabetic coma. It is a form which can probably be entirely disregarded in persons other than diabetics. Fortunate, also, is the fact that our powers of treating it, by insulin, are now very effective.

The body guards its neutrality so jealously—even the change in the blood reaction from the normal pH 7.4 to pH 6.95, which is infinitesimally over the acid range, results in coma—and maintains so efficient an automatic set of devices to make the proper adjustments that it is difficult to say whether any actual disease pictures of an obscure nature are due to acidosis. Perhaps they are, and study along this line has possibilities of fruitfulness.

QUESTIONS FROM READERS

A. E. P.: "Will you please tell me something more about Vitamin E? Do all cereals contain it? It Vitamin E destroyed by heat?"

Answer: Vitamin E is widely distributed—in many food stuffs. It is, in fact, probably the most generally distributed vitamin of all. Lettuce, whole wheat, egg yolk and liver, have been particularly mentioned as foods in which it is found. Vitamin E is not very easily destroyed by heat.

I. L. P.: "I would like to inquire what, if anything, it means to a woman of 50 in good health, to have a blood pressure of 110-112."

Answer: The figures you quote are entirely within the range of the normal and are extraordinarily good for a woman of that age.

MRS. H. A. H.: "I have many wart on the tops of my hands. They grow rapidly and look terrible. Please tell me what to do to get rid of them."

Answer: A remedy which is frequently efficient is to get an ounce bottle of formalin, standard strength, and several times a day touch the warts with the cork which has been moistened by the solution. The X-ray is an almost certain method of getting rid of warts.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Six pamphlets by Dr. Clendening can now be obtained by sending 10 cents in coin, for each, and a self-addressed, stamped envelope, to Dr. Logan Clendening, in care of this paper, or Central Press Association, 1435 East Twelfth street, Cleveland, O. Clarence Ferree Crippled Newsboy Needs More Money

Fund To Send Him To Mt. Clemens, Michigan, Is Growing Very Slowly

Clarence Ferree, crippled seller of Newspapers and magazines at the city building corner, who believes that he will regain more use of his legs, if he can get to Mt. Clemens, Michigan, and take the baths there, reports that the funds donated to him for that purpose are now in excess of fifty dollars.

It requires at least $200 for him to go there and those who desire to give him his opportunity to try and secure better health, should give their money to him as he selis his newspapers and magazines every morning and afternoon at the city building corner.

Swedish Cabinet Sets Moratorium On Private Debts

Obligations Of Kreuger Debts Will Be Extended If Necessary

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, Mar. 14—The Swedish cabinet in special session today granted a moratorium until the end of March to be extended if necessary, upon all the obligations of the Kreuger and toll company, chief interest of Ivar Kreuger, who committed suicide in Paris Saturday.

A similar moratorium was granted to three affiliated firms and to Kreuger's heirs and their estates.

The cabinet acted under powers granted by the Riksdag (parliament) in a special session a few hours before, authorizing the government to grant such moratorium on payment of private debts. Finance minister Hamrin had declared the measure would be used only with the greatest caution.

What is the meaning of gin in cotton gin?

When were italics first used?

How did the goods known as gingham gets its name?

Correctly Speaking—

"Leave go of" is a colloquialism. Say "leave hold of" or "let go". Say "He left hold of the rope." Not "He left go of the rope."

Today's Horoscope.

Persons born on this day do much in their way, but often get little in return.

Today's Anniversary.

On this date, in 1794, the patent on the cotton gin was issued to Eli Whitney.

Answers to Foregoing Questions.

1. As used in machinery, gin is an abbreviation of engine.
2. Manutius, a Venetian printer, first used them about 1500 A. D.
3. Gingham is derived from Guingamp, a town in Brittany, where the fabric was woven.

Joseph Meier, the "CHRISTUS" of this American production, is a German. His ancestry is replete with names in European plays. He came to this country three years ago with a German production of the Passion Play. This production has since returned to Germany, but not before having played in more than 200 cities of the United States and Canada with great success. Of the three years that Mr. Meier has been appearing in this country he has been asked repeatedly why the production could not be given in English. The answer to that question is the American version of the play in the Cathedral Auditorium in New Castle all this week.

New Castle Boy Writes About His Experiences

Tells Of The Happenings At Great Lakes Training Camp

George Weber, local boy, who recently enlisted in the United States Navy through Chief Boatswain's Mate F. R. Allison, officer in charge of the recruiting station here, has just written an interesting letter concerning his experiences in training for service in the United States Navy to Officer Allison. The letter follows:

Great Lakes, Illinois,
March 8, 1932.

Hello, Mr. Allison.

Well, Sir, I have finally found time to drop you a line. I am now so accustomed to saying Yes Sir and Aye, Aye, Sir, that it just slips out like nothing. We got a 48 hour leave last week end and I was saying Yes Sir and No Sir to conductors on street cars, in fact anything or anybody with brass buttons on.

It will not be long now until we are out of here, and then may be we will see some of the world. The only thing that keeps me humping out here, are those 0800 inspections, every Saturday morning. I didn't do so bad last Saturday, I made a 3. Our commanding officer is Mr. Toom, and I understand that you two were shipmates at one time. He gets plenty tough sometimes, but I'll bet there isn't a better commanding officer in camp.

He and I have had the ball pretty good so far and I sure hope it stays that way. Boy, I don't want that guy down on me. We start for boot-er competition this week. Out basketball team plays and we fight a week from tonight. I am fighting in the 120 pound class on the card. We have been training for about a week. I'll write you after the booster inspection and let you know how we made out. Say Hello to all the coppers and give them my best.

GEORGE WEBER.

LOOKING BACK

IN NEW CASTLE

Back some thirty or forty years, the name of George H. VanHorn meant considerable when it came to laying sidewalks and there were plenty of them laid during the period he was most active as a contractor. He was born in Clarion county, Pa., May 6, 1859. He came to New Castle from Clarion county, when he was twenty-two years of age, and went to work at a local blast furnace. Later he visited Tennessee, where he remained for three years and four months and then returned to this city, where he remained in business for many years. In 1890, he entered into the coal trade and later became a flagstone contractor and in the latter business did an immense business. He belonged to the Christian church and was a member of the Knights of Pythias, Masons and Elks.

Donald Hoffmaster of Edenburg, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hoffmaster, the former of whom is principal of the North street school, took part in the debate staged Thursday between Kent State Teachers College and Fairmont Teachers College at Fairmont, W. Va.

He was a member of the Kent team, which had the affirmative side of the question, "Resolved, that capitalism as a system of economic organization is unsound."

The judges listened to the debaters over the air and gave their decision by mail.

TO HOLD SERVICE AT ALMIRA HOME

Men of the Highland U. P. church will be in charge of the weekly service at the Almira Home on Thursday evening.

They were to have held services there two weeks ago, but because of several deaths at the home, the services were postponed.

The men will assemble at the church at 7:15 and will go in a body to the home. A chorus from the Men's Bible class will sing several selections.

General Secretary Will Be Speaker At Four County Rally

Christian Endeavor Will Hold An Important Meeting Here Wednesday

One of the most important meetings of the Christian Endeavor Societies of Lawrence, Beaver, Butler and Mercer counties in some time, will be the four county rally to be held in the Central Presbyterian church on Wednesday evening, March 16 at eight oclock.

Warren G. Hoopes of Philadelphia, general secretary of the Christian Endeavor Societies of Pennsylvania, will be the speaker of the rally. He is a very forceful and energetic speaker and holds his audience from the time he starts until he has uttered the final word of his address.

The public will be welcomed as the address of Mr. Hoopes will be of interest to all.

The several counties will be represented on the program as follows:

Devotionals—Joseph Toch of Beaver county; selections by Girl's trio from Butler County and Homer Welch of Grove City, representing the Mercer county district, will be in charge of the singing.

Lawrence, the host county, will be represented by President Harry Wilson, who will act as chairman of the meeting.

Large delegations are expected from each of the four counties. A delegation is also expected from Allegheny county.

Preceding the general meeting, the pastors of the participating churches will meet in conference with Mr. Hoopes at 7:15 p .m. sharp. They will discuss Christian Endeavor from the viewpoint of the pastor.

Two Ohio counties bordering on Lawrence county are also expected to be represented at the meeting with delegates.

Former New Bedford Pastor And Wife Married 60 Years

Rev. And Mrs. Thomas B. Anderson Celebrate Wedding Anniversary Today

BEAVER FALLS, Pa., Mar. 14.—Dr. Thomas B. Anderson, pastor emeritus of the College Hill Presbyterian church, and Mrs. Anderson, College Hill, today observed the sixtieth anniversary of their wedding.

They were married March 14, 1872, at Saltsburg. The bride was Miss Lida Brown, daughter of the late Dr. Thomas H. Brown. Following the ceremony they left for New Bedford, Pa., where Dr. Anderson was pastor of the Presbyterian church. Since then he held many charges. He was pastor of the Rochester church for 18 years and came to College Hill January 1, 1910. After 10 years he retired. Dr. Anderson is a veteran of the Civil War and a member of the local Grand Army post.

Dr. and Mrs. Anderson are the parents of seven children, all of whom are living. They are: Rev. Merle H. Anderson, D. D., Ann Arbor, Mich.; Dr. J. H. Anderson, Welch, W. Va.; Mrs. Ralph K. Hickok, wife of the president of Western College for Women at Oxford, O.; Mrs. John E. West, Troy, O.; Walter B. Anderson, Washington, Pa.; Mrs. Tracy Batholomew, East End, Pittsburgh, and Miss Mary B. Anderson at home. There are 10 grandchildren.

At the celebration Mrs. Anderson wore the gown in which she was married.

Two Chimney Fires Bring Day's Alarms

Sunday Runs For Firefighters Of Little Consequence; Loss Is Slight

Rushing to an alarm sounding from box 41, Central and Fourth ward firemen Sunday morning found the home of Harry Burgess, 309 North Ray street, afire, as a result of a blaze in the chimney. The blaze was extinguished before much damage resulted.

The home is owned by F. A. Hover. Firemen were in their stations again at 9:30 a. m.

A second chimney fire for the day called Fifth ward and Central firefighters to the home of Mrs. Pearl Bloom, 410 East Reynolds street, Sunday afternoon at 12:10 o'clock. The alarm went in from box 54.

Here, dirt in the chimney had caused the blaze. There was slight loss.

AUTO TAKES FIRE

When an automobile backfired as the driver started it late Saturday evening at a point near the intersection of North Jefferson street and Wallace avenue, a part of the framework ignited and firemen were called. No. 2 men responded.

The car belonged to J. Strothers. Damage was slight.

MY NEW YORK

BY JAMES ASWELL

By Central Press

NEW YORK, Mar. 14.—Warblings of an influenza victim:

Herewith my semi-annual sick bed saga. . . I never have a "common cold" . . . It is influenza or nothing. . . . Since starting this column I have written it hanging from straps of Central European trains, on the rainy decks of Cherbourg ship tenders, I have dictated it to secretaries who interrupt to inform me how my foolish contemporaries would do it, I have droned it into the telephone, long distance; I have struggled to indite it upon the teletype, and I have pounded it into portable typewriters which bounce about the room like cotton balls in night clubs. . .

Today my adversary is a dictating machine at the bedside. . . I disclaim responsibility for what these diabolical voice cylinders interpret me to have said. Anyway. . .

FROM THE DESK-TOP

Here's a sheaf of stuff assembled while contracting a temperature:

Dick Halliburton, the blond curly-locked vagabond, beloved of ladies' book clubs, is girdling the globe in his airplane, "Flying Carpet," and writes that there is one thing rarer in the Sahara desert than water—that's gasoline. . . The morning mail brings a copy of "The Torch of Life,' issued by Avantine Press, which, from a hasty, pop-eyed perusal, ought to have had asbestos covers. . .

Thomas A. Edison's son, Charlie, wrote verses once upon a time for a Greenwich Village sheet, under the signature "Tom Peeper"—but not a gossip column as the tag might imply. . .

And babbling away as I am into the mouthpiece of this voice recorder, I am reminded of the circumstances under which Edison, pere, made his first experiment with the first talking machine. . . The apparatus was ready to receive before Edison could think of any words to try to chant: "Mary had a little lamb, its fleece was white as snow" . . . He forgot the rest, and kept repeating it until the cylinder came to a stop. . . That was the first phonograph record. . .

It may surprise you to learn that two of the most popular songs ever to hit the ether and the dance floors of the land were written by Englishmen. . . I refer to "Show Me the Way to Go Home" and "Good night, Sweetheart"—the latter being the biggest smash in a decade. . . The success of these songs is doubly welcome to their authors, Jimmy Campbell and Reggie Connelly, of the London firm of music publishers, Campbell & Connelly. . . The boys are now taking a peek at Hollywood. . .

TOO MUCH HOSPITALITY

The Atlantic Beach club, hoity-toity contribution of Joseph Urban to the architectural glories of society's play-spots, has budgeted itself on hospitality as well as other things. . . Six thousand friends of members wrote their names on the guest book of the swanky resort last season. . . This year the board of directors has decreed no member may bring a single guest more than four times to the club. . .

The diamond-encrusted box presented by Leslie Howard, the actor-playwright, to his frau, has only one twin in the world, and that belongs to the Prince of Wales. . .

That professor of the American Inter-Planetary society, who announced a projected rocket plane trip to the moon, is being swamped, I am told, by would-be voyagers who want lunatickets. . .

That newspaper story mentioning Donald Brian's (of "Merry Widow" light opera fame) birthdate as 1877 must be a mis-print. . . That would make him 55, and he doesn't look 30.

QUERY

Were there ever any ransom notes, authentically received by the Lindberghs from the holders of the child—or was all that just a newspaper build-up, including the talk about the "50,000" demanded?

STILL ON TOP

Radio "experts" are forever telling me that hits of the air can be manufactured by studios with the dispatch and certainty of rolling-pins.

If that so? Well, then, what about Graham McNamee and Ted Husing? It is a matter of common knowledge that efforts have been made to popularize substitutes for both these voices, due to the unlucky scrapes of one kind or another both Mac and Ted have got themselves into.

They remain the unquestioned ace announcers of the air. Their voices pack a thrill easy to feel but hard to analyze. As long as they retain that quality of vocal excitement they will retain their niches in radiodom. And they should!

SORE THROAT

FIVE minutes after you rub on Musterole your throat should begin to feel less sore! Continue the treatment once every hour for five hours and you'll be astonished at the relief.

This famous blend of oil of mustard, camphor, menthol and other ingredients brings relief naturally. Musterole gets action because it is a "counter-irritant"—not just a salve—it penetrates and stimulates blood circulation and helps to draw out infection and pain. Used by millions for 20 years. Recommended by doctors and nurses.

To Mothers—Musterole is also made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole.

SEVENTH WARD NEWS

Revivals Will Start Tonight

Two Week Series Of Services At Methodist Church To Get Underway

Two weeks of special revival meetings will be commenced this evening at the Mahoning Episcopal Church corner of East Madison avenue and North Cedar street. Services will be held every night except Saturday and Rev. W. H. Downing, pastor, will be in charge.

Subjects will be:

Monday — "The Unchangeable Christ."

Tuesday—"A Piece of Good News."

Wednesday—"The Lighted Road."

Thursday—"Neglect, The Greatest Sin of The Age."

Friday—"The Gracious Reception."

The Tuesday evening service will be especially for the ladies and their friends, of the church and community. Wednesday will be family night and Friday's service will be special for Sunday School members and young people.

New and old musical selections will be rendered by the choir. The services will end with Easter Sunday, March 27.

Dinner, Cards Will Be Enjoyed By O. R. C. Ladies

A tureen dinner and business meeting will be followed by a card party for members and friends, according to plans made by the Ladies Auxiliary to the Order of Railroad Conductors. The events will take place Thursday afternoon at the City hall.

Promptly at 12:30 p. m. the auxiliary members will sit down to dinner. A committee consisting of Mrs. W. P. McGrath, Mrs. M. R. Olmstead and Mrs. H. S. Gillespie will be in charge of the dinner arrangements. Then, after the brief business session, card playing will be the diversion, with Mrs. Foster, Mrs. Alice Guy and Mrs. Roy Clark in charge.

POSTPONE CLUB

The meeting of the W. A. G. club, scheduled for Thursday evening of this week at the home of Mrs. Charles Hopper, has been postponed for a week or so. The meeting date will be announced soon.

Observations In 7th Ward

A surprise was in store for a local grocer Saturday when he peeled the outer leaf from a head of Mexican cabbage. Inside there were 13 perfect little heads of cabbage, gathered together in a bunch. Before the outer covering had been removed the large head appeared to be solid.

Saturday was an unusual sort of day for a lad to get the impulse to go "stilt" walking. But the idea came to a North Cedar street boy and he quite expertly trod up and down the street on the high pair of stilts. Yes, there were a couple of spills, but that's in the game.

Several local people and several students of Westminster College spent Friday evening at Lakewood enjoying ice skating.

And in regard to ice skating, do you remember the days of the great crowds of skaters at "Ealey's pond" on the Mt. Jackson road? Ealey's pond, located near the New Castle Junction, to the north side of the Mt. Jackson road, was at one time lighted by search lamps and hundreds of skaters gathered there on icy nights. Season tickets were issued and the place was a very popular recreation center.

The Opera House, more recently the Capitol theater, and now a mass of fire-eaten ruins, at one time housed a meat market owned by Henry Wettich, father of Charles, Lew and Ralph. The market was one of a number housed in the "community market place".

A chocolate egg, bearing on it the name, 'Cgiorannio" (or Genevieve) was sent from here on Saturday for a trip across the Atlantic to Italy. The egg was sent by Rose Didario of North Liberty street to a relative in the old country. Not often an egg makes such a long trip.

The writer overheard a unique conversation on the street car Saturday. Conversations are often heard in Italian, Polish and even French, but did you ever hear a discourse in "Morse code?" The young ladies were Girl Scouts and they were reviewing the code. The talk ran something like this: "Dot, dash, dot dot, dash, dot, dash, dot, dash, dash" and so on through the 20 minutes!

EPWORTH LEAGUE EVENING PARTY

Members of the Epworth League of the Mahoning Methodist church were entertained Saturday evening in the home of the president, Helen Emery, Sixth street.

Twenty young folks enjoyed an evening of games and music, which was furnished by Helen Anderson, Mildred Butz, and "Butch" Emery. A color scheme of green and white was carried out by the hostess when delicious refreshments were served.

WEDNESDAY CONFERENCE

Because of the Young Peoples Conference at the Central Presbyterian church on Wednesday evening, the mid-week prayer service at the Mahoningtown Presbyterian church has been postponed to Thursday evening.

It is believed that a large number of local young people will attend the conference. It is for all denominations.

MEMBERS ARE VISITED

The all member visitation was conducted by a group of workers of the Mahoningtown Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon, but as some of the committee members were unable to take part because of illness, all members were not visited.

A report of the results achieved during the afternoon will be made at a future meeting of the visitation committee.

Dance Hall Girl And Rich Hubby Settling Down

Jay F. Carlisle, Father Of Groom, Causes Couple To Give Up Vocations

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Mar. 14.—News of the romantic elopement of a scion of wealth and a platinum blonde dance hall hostess today excited the social set.

Allan P. Carlisle, 20, son of Jay F. Carlisle, millionaire broker, came down from Harvard university last Christmas and married Romaine Fleming, 20, at a secret ceremony at Rye, N. Y.

Later, young Carlisle returned to his studies, while his bride continued to act as a "taxi dance" girl in a Broadway ballroom.

Today the young couple was living in an apartment in Greenwich Village. Allen Carlisle returned from his studies after his father was informed of the wedding, and Mrs Carlisle deserted the dance hall.

The couple won a cup for dancing a few days after the marriage.

Miss Fleming at the time of her wedding said she came from Greensburg, Pa.

Carlisle's mother is a daughter of the late Robert A. Pinkerton, son of the founder of a private detective agency.

April 6 To Be Registration Day

Only For Voters Who Were Not Registered In Fall Or Who Have Moved

Only one day has been set aside for registration in the spring primary election which will be held April 26. The one day is April 6 and is only for those voters who were not registered for the November election of 1931.

This also applies to voters who have moved from their previous residence since the November election. If they have been in their new precinct for 60 days by April 26 they are entitled to register on April 6 but cannot vote unless they do register on April 6.

Any voter who registered last fall and has not moved since that time does not need to register on April 6 as this is only for those not registered in November or who have moved since then.

Let's Pretend

Let's pretend that each dollar you spend in A&P is a nice round pie. Now, if you want to play, cut this pie up into portions just to see who gets what part of it.

The first slice is enormous. It's the 76 cents that A&P pays for the goods it sells you for one dollar. That is, you get back 76 cents in merchandise.

The next is a good sized slice. It's the 14¾ cents that goes directly into the business life of your community for rent, light, heat, salaries, and the like.

The third slice is very tiny—just 2¾ cents of the whole dollar and it is A&P's only profit for bringing the food from the farmer, who raises it, to you.

And what becomes of the 6½ cents that's left? It goes for taxes, local and national.

We think you'd be interested to know that there is some talk of changing this division of your food dollar so that a much larger share of it would go for taxes. Obviously, the only way to get a larger slice for taxes, would be to take a smaller slice for food. You can't tax your pie and eat it too.

Cutting up a food dollar pie has a simple moral and it is that any extra tax on food stores must be paid by you in higher food prices.

Claims New Car Generates Own Power; No Cost

Electro-pneumatic Automomatic Uses Water And Air For Fuel

(International News Service)

BERLIN, Mar. 14—What is claimed to be the cheapest automobile of the world has been constructed and successfully tested by Erich Graichen, Thuringian engineer, inventor of "death-rays," and owner of many patents relating to electro-dynamic machinery.

Graichen's new car is an electro-pneumatic automobile which generates its own power automatically, and without cost, from water and air while running and even standing. In appearance it resembles a racing car, except for the fact that a radiator is missing altogether.

Graichen has completed a trip of 155 miles from Altenburg to Berlin and predicts that, as a result of this spectacular test, his invention very likely will lead to a revolution in automobile construction.

The new electro-pneumatic automobile runs without any combustion engine and therefore needs neither gasoline nor oil. It is driven by a combination of electric accumulators and a compressed air motor, both of which generate power while the car is running.

The car is started electrically by a magnet mounted on a coasting clutch on the rear axel, similar to a "coaster-brake" on a bicycle. There are no other gears. The vibrations of the chassis are transformed into compressed air which is stored and pumped into a pressure cylinder by means of pumps.

The brakes are worked by a compressor and the energy employed in braking is utilized to feed a generator. The compressed air cylinder also can be filled by a hand pump or through electrolytic production of explosive gas. The compressed air motor is coupled with the dynamo. Thus the dynamo generates power while the car is running and re-charges the accumulators automatically. Since explosive gas is produced constantly there is practically no limit to mileage to the electro-pneumatic automobile.

Considering that the car is independent of gasoline and oil, that it needs little repairing and costs about two hundred and fifty dollars Gaichen's electro-pneumatic automobile justly may be called a "popular-priced" vehicle.

On the first long trial trip, 155 miles, the car, which weighs only 1,100 pounds, attained a maximum speed of 61 miles an hour with two passengers. Its minimum speed is 1½ miles an hour, all accomplished without shifting gears. The test car has a battery of 40 volts with a capacity of 150 ampere hours. Engineer Graichen believed that the compression system will work better on heavier cars.

Three Boys Die In Icy Waters

Two Brothers And Young Rescurer Are Drowned In Pond

TRAGEDY OCCURS AT LIMA, OHIO

(International News Service)

LIMA, O., Mar. 14.—Funeral services were being arranged today for three boys, two of them brothers, drowned when they fell through the ice on McCullough Park Lake here.

Ernest and Clarence Line, aged 12 and 10 respectively, and Junior Woods were skating together when Clarence broke through a patch of thin ice and sank in the lake. Ernest hurried to his brother's aid, crashed through the ice and was unable to extricate himself.

The third boy was plunged into the lake when the ice gave way under him as he tried to circle the hole and run for help. All three bodies were recovered shortly afterward.

BULLET IN SKULL KILLS MAN AFTER 14 YEARS

BUD9PEST, Mar. 14.—For 14 years Joseph Nagy, a farmhand, worked, ate and slept with an Italian bullet embedded in his skull knowing that he might die any minute.

The first year he told physicians he was going to enjoy himself in the race with death. But the feeling of security grew with each succeeding month and he became just an ordinary peasant lad, though he steadfastly refused to marry.

Walking down the main street of the village of Teglas almost on the 14th anniversary of his injury in the World war on the Italian front, Nagy fell over dead. Physicians who performed an autopsy said that the bullet had moved inward just a trifle and touched a nerve in the brain.

STEPS TO CHECK CLEVELAND CRIMES

(International News Service)

CLEVELAND, O., Mar. 14.—Steps to curb an increase in major crimes in Cleveland have been taken by Police Chief George Matowitz and other municipal officials.

Reports submitted to the chief revealed that there were 730 major crimes in the city during the month of January, compared with 539 for the corresponding month in 1931.

Eleven homicides were reported as compared with eight in January, 1931. All but two of the killings, however, were solved. Two robbers and one burglar were killed by police and citizens.

Losses from burglaries, robberies, house-breakings, safe jobs and grand larceny thefts totaled approximately $52,000 for the month. There were 220 robberies, 236 burglaries and 128 house prowlings.

FACTORY GIRL MAY BE CANONIZED AS SAINT

(International News Service)

EDINBURG, Mar. 14.—Margaret Sinclair, an Edinburgh factory girl who died of tuberculosis in 1925 will be canonized as a saint of the Roman Catholic church if a local movement succeeds.

Archbishop McDonald, Archbishop of St. Andrews and Edinburgh, has visited Rome with evidence taken on oath from several persons as to a factory girl's saintliness and as to cures and other mysterious effects which are said to have resulted from her powers of intercession.

Margaret's life story has been translated into many languages, and her grave in Mount Vernon cemetery in Edinburgh attracts many visitors.

CAT'S CURIOSITY CAUSE OF $1,500 FIRE LOSS

BUCKHANNON, W. Va., Mar. 14—A cat's curiosity aver an automatic cigaret lighter, was blamed for a $1,500 blaze at the home of Prosecuting Attorney A. Jerome Bailey, Upshur county. The cat lost its life in the flames.

The animal knocked over the lighter, setting fire to the front room. The front of the house was damaged badly before firemen extinguished the fire.

No Applications Now Available C.M.T.C. Training

Nearly Four Times As Many Applications Have Been Received As County Quota

Announcement was made today by Major Dr. W. Fulton Jackson, chairman of the citizens military training camp activities in Lawrence county that there would be no more applications available in the district.

According to information received by him from headquarters as of March 9, there have already been 150 applications received from young men of the county who are desirous of taking the training this summer.

As the quota of the county is but 39, it will be seen that approximately but one in four of the number who have already applied will have the opportunity of taking up the work this summer.

Volunteer Firemen To Stage Benefit

New Wilmington And West Middlesex Firemen To Play

(Special to The News.)

NEW WILMINGTON, Mar. 14.—Plans are under way for a benefit basketball game between the New Wilmington and West Middlesex firemen. All of the volunteers are "whipping" into shape and it looks as though New Wilmington firemen will have a speedy five to represent the town. The date will be named later.

Piles All Gone
Without Salves or Cutting
Itching, bleeding, protruding piles go quickly and don't come back, if you remove the cause. Bad blood circulation in the hemmorrhoidal veins causes piles by making the affected parts weak, flabby, almost dead. Salves and cutting fail because only an internal medicine can actually correct the cause. Dr. J. S. Leonhardt discovered a real internal Pile remedy. After prescribing it for 1,000 patients with success in 969 cases, he named it HEM-ROID. Eckerd's Cut Rate, New Castle Drug Co. says one bottle of HEM-ROID Tablets must end your Pile misery or money back.

There have been many absent from school the past two weeks on account of illness. However, the vacant seats are now beginning to be filled and we hope soon to have our attendance back to normal.

OPERETTA, "CHINA SILK"

Pupils from the grade school are preparing an operetta to be given in the near future. Rather extensive plans are being made for an evening of real entertainment. "China Silk" is the charming story of a little American's visit to China and of the many strange customs she found there. There are mystery, comedy and very nearly a tragedy before all ends happily. The plot is enlivened by many catchy songs and lovely costumes. Watch this column. The date will be announced soon.

All Equipment Of Troop F Is Now In Fine Condition

Group Of Men Have Been Busy In Putting It In Shape In Past Two Weeks

Work of cleaning, shining and stenciling all the equipment of Troop F, 103rd Cavalary, National Guard of Pennsylvania, which had been in progress for the past two weeks by a squad of men under the supervision of Lieutenant George Mitchell, has been completed with the exception of undergoing the final check up for the Federal Inspection, the last of the month.

The rifles, pistols and sabers have been cleaned and shined up with the greatest of care and when the inspection is held, this and all the rest of the equipment should place this troop at the top of the list in the entire regiment.

The Parent Problem
by GARRY C. MYERS, Ph.D.

"Give Yourself Pat On Back" Myers Advises Discouraged Parents

Don't Grow Panicky And Be Too Hard On Yourself, Remember Your Success, Psychologist Counsels

By GARRY C. MYERS, PH. D.
Head Division Parental Education, Cleveland College, Western Reserve University.

Suppose you have not practiced in the earlier years of your child many of the principles you consider workable among those which from time to time have been set forth in this column; and suppose you now discover in your child, say of 7 to 12, some undesirable habits pretty well established and the absence of certain desirable ones, what is the thing to do?

What you are likely to do is to condemn yourself and to suffer deep remorse; also you may foolishly set about to make your child over all at once.

Concerning the first likelihood, the writer is aware that for some parents an occasional article in this column may prove harmful.

Now, my fellow parent, please do not let yourself grow panicky. Don't be too hard on yourself. You have done the best you could. You have been conscientious. Anyway, the past is past.

Moreover, articles like these are of necessity brief, each turned about a single topic. Consequently in your mind some items are given excessive emphasis, and some of your small failures are made to appear unduly large. Over against these relatively small failures your huge successes may have shrunk almost to nothingness. Unfortunately it is not easy to help all readers to keep perspective.

Many a parent leaving one of these articles no doubt with a feeling of deep remorse, calling herself a most unworthy parent, may have had successes in relation to her children and her family life none of us alleged child guidance experts have discussed at all. These successes may be so significant for the future welfare of the child as to render the unduly magnified failures relatively ineffectual. It is these overlooked, undiscovered items which pernaps are the explanation of why some parents who seem to have violated most of the cherished principles of "scientific" child guidance, have children who bye and bye turn out very well.

Let us remember, furthermore, that the child of 7 or 12, whether we consider him well brought up or not, has not become what he is in a few days or weeks or months. He has been developing all these years since he was born. So also have we parents in the meanwhile been acquiring a given set of attitudes and habits toward the child and toward each other in respect to him. We consequently cannot hope to re-educate him or ourselves in a short while. Human nature does not change all at once in the child or in the adult. If, therefore, we set out to make a child over suddenly, we will fail. Worse still we will do ourselves and the child great harm through the emotional conflicts we inevitably will induce.

Nor can we hope to change the child, however slowly, in all directions. In order to succeed we must succeed. We therefore are going to take stock of our larger problems and to break them up into smaller ones. We are going to work on those which seem most important, at which we are pretty sure we can succeed.

Better to let some undesirable habits go on undisturbed than to attempt to correct them if we are not pretty sure we have at our command the resources to get adequate results. Not only what is desirable should concern us, but what is feasible.

Let us often ask ourselves, "Can it be done in the light of what has gone before?" If it can be done, will worse problems arise through its apparent success? It is all very well to hold our heads among the stars provided we can keep our heels upon the ground.

Family Night Held Friday By Legion Of Honor

Two Hundred Present At Second Annual Event In Cathedral Friday Evening

With two hundred present, the Second Annual Family Night of the Consistory Legion of Honor, was held in the Cathedral Friday evening, and an enjoyable evening was observed.

Early in the evening, a tureen dinner was served, following which an impromptu program was carried out. The first number on the program was a toast by Ray F. Hall. Mrs. Howard Geary gave a reading, and the Legion of Honor quartet, composed of Ray Clarke, Carl Turner, Frank Grace, and Albert W. Tindall, rendered several selections.

Ivor V. Davis responded to the question, "What I would do if I were a girl," and Mrs. Leon Drumm told "What she would do if she were a boy."

The prize to the family coming the longest distance went to Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Johnson of Slippery Rock, while the prize for the largest family went to Ivor V. Davis and family, four being tied for this honor, and a drawing was held for the prize.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond F. Clark and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Moffatt divided the prize for the prize waltz. Honors in bridge went to Mrs. Charles H. Young and R. L. Boyd and for 500 to Mrs. C. A. Johnson and Albert W. Tindall. Bingo was also played and dancing was enjoyed by those who did not play cards.

C. Ed. Brown was in charge of the program for the children, four reels of moving pictures being shown for their benefit.

The program was in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jarrett, chairman; Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Moffatt, Mr. and Mrs. Seth Teets, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Conn, and Mr. and Mrs. James A. Hewitt.

McGill P. T. A. To Hold March Meeting Tuesday

Interesting Program Will Be Carried Out Tomorrow Afternoon

An interesting meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association of the Arthur McGill school will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2:35 o'clock in the school.

The program includes selections by the school orchestra, a playlet entitled "Garden Time" and a talk on "Our Gardens" by Mrs. W. C. Eckenroad.

Owing to the interesting character of the program the parents of the association are manifesting much interest in the meeting, and a large turnout of the members is anticipated.

HATCHERY MANAGER STRICKEN IN COOP

LINESVILLE, Pa., Mar. 14.—Charles Irons, 23, manager of the Linesville Hatchery Company, was found dead in a brooder house. Evidently he was drawing a pail of water when stricken possibly from an electric shock as he touched the spigot. He fell in such a way that water continued to pour over his head after the pail was filled. Irons was married last September.

MERCER FARMER, 75 KILLED IN RUNAWAY

MERCER, Pa., Mar. 14—Andy Sabota, 75, a farmer residing six miles from here was instantly killed yesterday when a horse he was driving ran away. He was thrown and received a broken neck. Search for him was started when the horse returned home drawing the empty wagon.

ACTUAL EXPERIENCE OF MRS. JOHN H. LYNCH

Thousands praise these rich hard-water suds

LIKE Mrs. Lynch, millions have discovered that it's thrifty to use Rinso—the soap that soaks clothes whiter. Thousands write us of the amazing amount of work one box of Rinso will do, in tub, washer and dishpan.

Try it yourself—and see! Cup for cup, Rinso gives twice as much suds as lightweight, puffed-up soaps—even in hardest water. No softener needed. These creamy, lasting suds soak out dirt—save scrubbing and boiling—save the clothes. These rich suds make dishwashing easier, too. Makers of 40 famous washers recommend Rinso. Sparks From New Castle Motor Club

DON'T MAKE REPAIR SHOPS ON THE HIGHWAYS

In these days when almost every man and his neighbor has an automobile and some twenty-six million motor vehicles are traveling the streets and highways, there is one form of "road-hogging" that has become a definitely dangerous practice. It is that of making a repair shop of the highway when something goes wrong with the car.

The greater volume of traffic due to the increase in number of cars on the roads, and the fact that many states have raised their speed limits, makes this danger even greater than in the past, the New Castle Motor Club points out.

Yet many motorists, apparently, remain oblivious to the hazard they present to other motorists and the actual danger to themselves, and continue to convert the highway into a temporary repair shop. When a tire goes flat, instead of pulling entirely off the road they are content to stop on the highway and make the change. If something happens to the engine, they do the same thing.

In the case of a carburetor adjustment or some minor repair to the motor, this practice is dangerous enough. But when a tire must be changed, it means getting out several pieces of equipment and strewing them about the car. Even when the car is over on the ledge of the road and can be passed safely, if the puncture is on the left side the person making the change is working out in the line of travel. With traffic bearing down on him from both directions, naturally his position is dangerous to himself and to others.

Many accidents from this cause have been reported. These necessitate the warning, "If possible, drive the car entirely off the road before attempting to make any repairs to it.

TEN WAYS IN WHICH AN A. A. A. MEMBERSHIP HELPS YOU

1—In National legislative matters you have the strength of approximately a million A. A. A. members to add to your own influence.

2—You have the world's largest organization of car owners to protect your interest in the matter of motor vehicle taxation, which is a matter of a billion dollars annually.

3—A. A. A. memberships helped to enact the A. A. A. Safety-Responsibility Bill in 18 states and four provinces; this Act is one of America's greatest safety measures.

4—Through your membership nearly a million other A. A. A. members join hands with you in sponsoring a nation-wide Uniform Driver's License Law, which has probably done more to reduce traffic accidents of the highways of America than any other law ever written.

5—Your membership has helped to eliminate from the highways of the country hundreds of fee-grabbing constables, who were operating speed-traps.

6—Thousands of miles of highways have been posted with distance and directional signs for the convenience and guidance of the millions of motorists in America, through A. A. A. memberships.

7—You are a member of the world's largest body of organized motor citizens, who are asking for continuance of Federal Aid for highway construction.

8—A. A. A. members are providing for the daily protection from traffic accidents of five million school children while they are enroute to and from school, and training them to be safer citizens for the future.

9—You are lending your assistance in advertising your local community to attract outside tourists, which is an invaluable service. Those things that benefit a community benefit its citizens.

10—You are helping to build and maintain the world's largest and finest travel service system—one that will furnish you with many valuable direct personal services.

WE INVITE YOU TO JOIN THE NEW CASTLE MOTOR CLUB.

WILL YOUR DRIVING MAKE OUR STREETS DANGEROUS?

"MOTORISTS! Obey Signs, Signals and Markings. Make NEW CASTLE motoring safe."

Through thirty years of service to the motorists of America, the world has applied the acid test to A. A. A. membership value.

If you are not a member, get in touch with the secretary of your local A. A. A. Motor Club and let him tell you how little it costs to join and how much it pays to belong.

AVERAGE GASOLINE PRICE DROPS 3.48 CENTS IN FIVE YEARS; TAXES SHOOT SKYWARD.

While gasoline taxes have been shooting skyward during the last five years, the average retail price of straight gasoline dropped 3.48 cents per gallon according to R. W. Bolsinger, President of the New Castle Motor Club, which is affiliated with the American Automobile Association.

Mr. Bolsinger bases his statement on an analysis of retail gasoline prices for 50 key cities on January 1, 1932, compared to those prevailing on February 1, 1926.

"When it is considered that the gasoline tax for the country is practically the same as the drop in the price of gas" he continued, "it is apparent that this factor had aided the legislative raids on the motorists through the constant pyramiding of the gasoline tax. If it were not for the lower gasoline prices, motorists today would be confronted with an added gasoline cost of $500,000,000 annually. What will happen if gasoline prices return to the 1926 level?"

Mr. Bolsinger declared that the gasoline tax now averages about 30 per cent of the retail price before the tax is levied, while in Florida for instance, the seven-cent tax is equivalent to nearly 70 per cent of the retail price of gasoline.

"If the 30 per cent sales tax on gasoline were applied to other commodities the A. A. A. Club executive said "it would be equal to a tax of $2.70 on a $9.00 pair of shoes; $2.10 on a $7.00 hat of $9.00 on a $30.00 suit. It is apparent that the consumer would not stand the imposition of such taxes and the time is nearing when motorists will turn against legislators who seek to make the gas tax a political grab bag."

HE'S 102 YEARS YOUNG AND GETS DRIVER'S LICENSE

Thomas Gordon, 102 of Grand Rapids, Mich., passed a recent test for his automobile driver's license to comply with the new Michigan law. He is said to be the oldest driver in the world and passed the test with a perfect score. He claims never to have had an acident, following a pratcice of watching the "other fellow" regardless of who has the right-of-way.

THE MOST OF THE BEST

Motorists who want the most of the best in a travel service for the smallest cost naturally turn to the New Castle Motor Club.

If you are a member you are making a moral and financial contribution to these matters of supreme importance to the car owners of America.

You may do double duty by inviting your non-member neighbors to join your local A. A. A. club, or hand their names to your local secretary at the New Castle Motor Club.

News Of The World As Told In Pictures

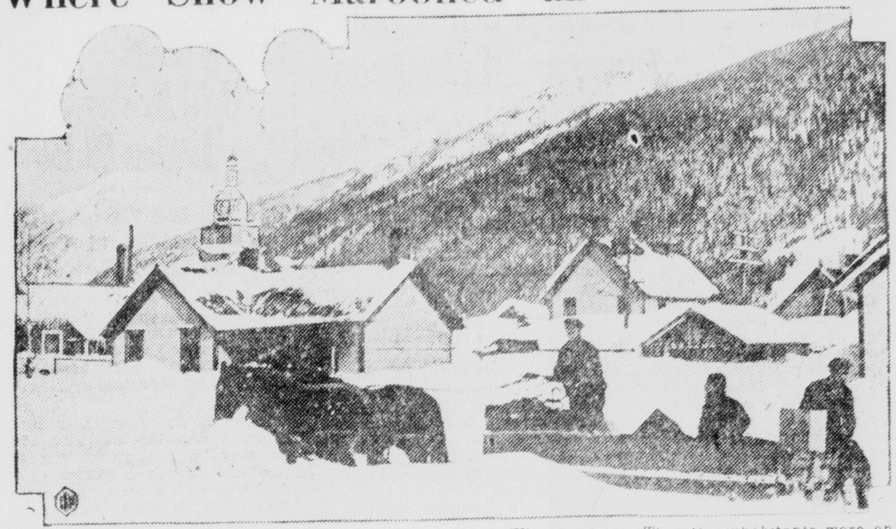
Where Blizzard Marooned Thirteen

The terrific snowstorm that all but buried up-State New York closed many of the main highways and marooned hundreds of automobiles. Photo above shows one of the two passenger busses which were trapped in a snowdrift at Bergen, near Batavia, N. Y., placing its 13 passengers in grave danger of being frozen to death. News of its plight having been flashed to Rochester, Russell Holderman (inset), of the LeRoy Airport, flew to the relief of the stranded passengers and dropped food. State Troopers fought their way through the blizzard with a supply of gasoline which enabled the drivers to keep the bus engine running, supplying a little heat to keep the travelers from freezing.

CAROL RELENTS TOWARD HELEN

Coincident with the arrival in the United States of this latest portrait of King Carol of Rumania and his son, Crown Prince Michael, comes word that Carol has negotiated for an "arrangement" between himself and his divorced wife, Princess Helen. The king has been endeavoring to persuade Helen to return to Rumania to take care of Michael, the former boy king.

Where Snow Marooned an Entire Town



Cut off from the outside world since February 6 by tremendous snowfall and snow avalanches from the mountain sides, the town of Silverton, Colorado, may thank the foresight of its merchants that it was saved from starvation. The shopkeepers had stocked up with an unusual amount of supplies before Winter set in. Thus the inhabitants were enabled to hold out until relief was sent by plane. Photo above shows a general view of part of the town. In the foreground is a horse-drawn sled which ploughed its way in from the outside with a supply of fresh food.

Congressional Romance

A friendship that started when the bride and groom occupied adjoining seats in the House of Representatives, ripened into love and finally led to the altar, is the romance of the former Ruth Hanna McCormick and Albert G. Simms, who were recently married at Colorado Springs, Colo. Photo shows the couple just after the wedding. Mrs. Simms is a former Congresswoman from Illinois, while Mr. Simms was a representative from New Mexico.

Embassy Wedding

A romance that flowered in the Far East reached a happy climax when Matilda Moulton, beautiful St. Louis, Mo., society girl, was married in the American Embassy at Tokyo, Japan, to Charles Gee, a prosperous Hong Kong business man. Hers was the first wedding ceremony ever performed in the Embassy. The bride was given away by U. S. Ambassador W. Cameron Forbes.

Missing on African Tour

Grave concern is felt in the United States and in London over lack of news from the Vicomte and Vicomtesse de Sibour, who left Dakar, East Africa, in a plane two weeks ago, and have not been heard from. The couple, both accomplished fliers, were on a pleasure tour and were next expected at Naingwe, Belgian Congo. The Vicomtesse is a daughter of Gordon Selfridge, American multi-millionaire merchant. Photo was made when the Vicomte and his bride were flying at Roosevelt Field, New York.

Air Voyager Home

Little Shirley Montieth, aged 3, is shown waving a greeting to her father as she arrived at Newark, N. J., airport after a flight from Reno, Nev. Shirley made the 2,575 mile aerial journey alone, except for her doll, after a court order had placed her in custody of her father, John Montieth, of Irvington, N. J. The child was taken to Reno by her mother, who sought a divorce.

BEAUTY HEADS STATE INDIAN CLUB

Miss Marie Cook, attractive society girl of Muskogee, Okla., has been elected president of the Da-Co-Tah club, state Indian women's organization. Miss Cook was chosen from a field of 20 candidates from all sections of Oklahoma.

Kidnap Suspect

The latest suspect sought in connection with the kidnaping of the Lindbergh baby is Martin Depew for whom the Missouri police have been hunting in connection with the abduction of Mrs. Nell Donnelly, of Kansas City. Depew is said to have come East after escaping the police net spread after the Donnelly kidnaping. His wife, Ethel, was not so lucky, for she is languishing in a Kansas City, Mo., jail.

New Eaglet Clue

New evidence has been brought to light in the Lindbergh case by Joseph Weber, manager of a Hopewell roadhouse. Weber told of a meeting at his place of business between Betty Gow, nursemaid of the Lindbergh baby, and men who have not been identified. None of them was "Red" Johnson, Weber says. The meeting occurred the night before the kidnaping.

America's Youngest Grandma

Declared the winner of a contest to determine the country's youngest grandmother, Mrs. Louise Skelton (right), of Potomac, Va., is only 34 years old. The youthful grandma is shown with her daughter, Mrs. Colene Acheson, 17-year-old mother of the baby shown, who is one year old. The contest was sponsored by a food exposition held at Washington, D. C.

Lindy News While Milking

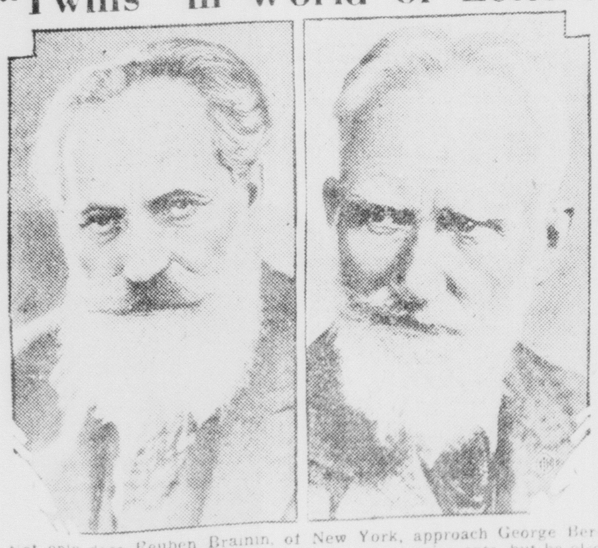
This New Jersey farmer does not intend to allow the press of farm duties to interfere with his keeping in touch with events at the house on the hill in Hopewell where Colonel and Mrs Charles A Lindbergh are anxiously awaiting the return of their kidnaped baby. The farmer has rigged up a radio receiver in his cowshed and gets the latest news straight from headquarters as he goes about his daily milking.

TEAM CAPTAIN SHOOTS PERFECT 100

Miss Margaret Klopfenstein

Miss Margaret Klopfenstein, captain of the University of Wichita sharpshooters' team, shot a perfect score of 100 in a recent bout with the University of Missouri girl shooters. The Wichita co-ed scored 99 to defeat the Missouri girls by one point, with a team score of 98.75. The shoot was held at Booneville, Mo.

"Twins" in World of Letters



Not only does Reuben Brainin, of New York, approach George Bernard Shaw, English man of letters, in literary attainments, but he also bears a marked facial resemblance to the famous cynic. The two men are shown above. Shaw is at right. Brainin is the Hebrew dean of literature who will be honored by a testimonial reception in New York on the occasion of his 70th anniversary.

New Castle--Braddock To Play Tuesday

SCHOOLBOY TEAMS EAGER FOR BATTLE

Important Third Round Game Will Be Played At Pitt Stadium Tomorrow Night; Tourney Feature Is Carded With Locals In Tough Spot; Coach Bridenbaugh Says, "New Castle Team In Fine Shape"; Braddock Will Have Hale And Kreiling As Stars; Large Crowd Is Expected To Witness Game; Starting Time Is 8 O'clock.

POTENTIAL champions both of them, New Castle and Braddock High quintets will play an important third round W. P. I. A. L. tournament game at the Pitt Stadium, Pittsburgh, Tuesday evening March 15. The winner of this tilt will advance to the semi-finals with Ford City as their opponents. The starting time of the impending game is 8 o'clock.

Two of the finest high school boy basketball teams in this section of the state will be fighting it out for the honors. Both teams have waded through a lot of heavy opposition to reach the spot they now hold. A great deal depends on the outcome of the game that is but 24 hours away. A fast and furious engagement is looked for. Braddock has a bigger team than New Castle. New Castle will counter with speed and accuracy.

Tough Assignment

Coach Phil Bridenbaugh in talking about this highly important set-to does not wax optimistic, he knows full well that his red and black clad warriors have a tough assignment. Having seen the Braddock team in action "Bridy" knows what his players must do. The New Castle team is in the best condition of the present season. They have been idle since that recent defeat of Zellenople at Beaver Falls, but they have been at intensive training and have not "gone stale". They are primed for victory.

The New Castle team has two men to stop if they are going to win this game. Tommy Hale, the 6 foot 3 inch center is one of the boys in mention, and Ted Kreiling a forward is another. Braddock has placed all of the scoring plays around this fast pair. Hale's height allows him the tipoff most of the time, and that means a lot. Lasky is a fine jumper and Hale is going to be worried by the New Castle pivot man, although Lasky will only scale 5 feet 11 inches.

Reiber Key Man

New Castle's threat of course is Lester "Bus" Reiber, the blonde speed boy, who in the past two games has scored 32 points. Reiber for a guard is an accurate shot and when he takes the ball down the floor he has to be checked well back or he will score. He is also an expert dribbler, and is dangerous when left in the open.

A lot depends on "Spark-Plug" Reiber. "Nickie" Uram will be at the other guard and will be in there playing his customary fine game. "Nickie" is not so much on the scoring, but his defensive work is well recognized. New Castle's guards can be depended upon to come through.

Lasky will take care of the center spot. "Andy" is a conscientious boy and a hard worker for the team. He is one of the leading scorers on the team too. Right now Lasky's chief concern in life is to stop that man Hale. "He'll not get away from me Lasky said today.

Lineup In Doubt

Bridenbaugh is undecided as usual about the forward posts. In Teplica, Marvin and Johnny Uram, New Castle has a trio of fast forwards, Any of them will fit the bill. It is hard to choose. Marvin may get the call due to his heighth. Teplica is a fighter and a good shot. Johnny Uram is a clever passer and dribbler. The locals are fortunate in having three such versatile forwards. In reserve "Bridy" has Nocera, Ruha, Kominic, Ostrosky and Rowe, all of them capable performers.

New Castle is ready and waiting for the first real test of the year, not that Butler, Beaver Falls, and New Brighton were easy opponents, but Braddock is just a little better and will require all that the locals have, to come out on the right side of the register.

Braddock High has a fine pair of guards in Gostowski and Buckley, they do not seem to take part in the scoring end of the game, but their services are indispensable in keeping the opponents from chalking up the points. Smith and Kreiling take care of the forwards. Hale of course is the center and the "king-pin". Speed combined with heighth and accuracy gives Braddock High the edge tomorrow night.

Will Leave Early

The New Castle team will leave early Tuesday afternoon for the scene of the contest. It is possible that the New Castle team will drive to Pittsburgh. Nothing definite has been decided upon as yet. Coach Bridenbaugh and Faculty Manager Gardner will have charge of the team. Assistant Coaches Klee and Thomas will offer valuable service to the boys in getting them ready for the fray.

The New Castle team will likely stop at the old stamping ground, the Schenley Hotel. The hotel is but a stone's throw from the Stadium.

The motorcade is ready to take a lot of New Castle High students and fans to the Pitt Stadium. New Castle will be well represented. The locals will get plenty of encouragement as they go forth to do battle with the strong Braddock pretenders to the throne. Plans for the motorcade are in the hands of Principal Frank L. Orth at Senior High. A capable committee of prominent local boosters of New Castle High is taking an active part in the drive for a big New Castle following at the game.

Tickets for the game can be purchased at the Sporting Goods Store or the Senior High School. Adults and students, if they buy their tickets here can have them for 50 cents. At the Stadium they will sell for 75 cents. Tickets can be bought here at the designated places up until 5 o'clock Tuesday evening. They cannot be purchased after that time in New Castle. A final checking with the W. P. I. A. L. officials must be made at Pittsburgh.

The officials for the game will not be known until just a few minutes before the teams take the floor. The W. P. I. A. L. officials have charge of selecting the men to handle the game. Their identity is well guarded.

Following are the probable lineups for the battle:—

New Castle.		Braddock.
Teplica or Marvin	F	Kreiling
J. Uram or Marvin	F	Smith
Lasky	C	Hale
N. Uram	G	Buckley
Reiber	G	Gostowski

Mayor's Relief Game Is Carded

St. Andrews Team Will Play Eintracht Singers Wednesday Night

BEN FRANKLIN SCENE OF GAME

St. Andrews and the Eintracht Singers basketball teams have donated their services to Mayor Chas. Mayne for a Mayor's Relief floor game Wednesday night at the Ben Franklin High court. The event will start at 7:30 o'clock with a preliminary game between the St. Andrews Reserves and the New Castle Trade School.

Hundreds of tickets have been printed and are now being sold by all of the St. Andrews players and Eintrachts. Everything is donated for the game, the floor, referee, players services and printing of tickets. An admission fee of 25 cents will be charged.

Expect Big Crowd

Due to a very unfortunate misunderstanding the Central Christians will not play the St. Andrews team any more floor games in their previously arranged series. The two church teams to have battled in the Relief Fund game, but no more games will be played acording to Dave Riley.

St. Andrews is enjoying their first year of basketball and have one of the most popular teams in the city. They have won the majority of their games and have played some of the best teams in this section of the state.

Mayor Mayne has promised full cooperation with the event and a big crowd is expected. There is a lot of friendly rivalry between the St. Andrews and Eintracht teams. They have played several fine games this year. Friday night the St. Andrews club will hold a meeting.

Church Lead In "A" Loop At Stake In Tonight's Game

Tonight's Church league games at the Y. M. C. A. are very important. The Wampum Presbyterian and Epworth M. E. game will determine the leadership in the "A" league. If Wampum trips Epworth the First Baptists will go into first place, leaving the Wesley team to battle the Baptists for the lead later on.

Wesley must take care of the Temple Israel team tonight to stay in the race for the leadership. Both contests tonight are crucial ones and will no doubt draw large crowds.

The Sacred Hearts and St. Michaels are the leading teams in the "B" league, and neither play this evening.

The lineup of games for tonight in the order they will be played. The first game will start at 8 o'clock.

New Wilmington, Princeton Lose

Arnold Leads Shenango To Class B Tourney Title, 15-12

Masters Big Star As Plaingrove Defeats Princeton 24-13

Shenango high school, led by Arnold, stellar forward, won its third game of the Lawrence county basketball tournament in the Westminster College gymnasium Saturday night when its defeated New Wilmington high school, pre-tourney favorite, by a 15-12 score. The victory in the final game gave Shenango high the county tourney championship with New Wilmington high the runner-up honors.

In the first game of the evening, the playoff in the class C circuit, Plaingrove high school, paced by Masters at forward, won its third contest of the tourney, defeating Princeton by a 24-13 count to win the class C honors in the county.

New Wilmington high, winner of the county championship during the regular season, with eight victories and two defeats, played Saturday night's game without the services of its regular center, Rose, but McCrumb, who took Rose's place, played an excellent game, scoring four field goals.

Arnold Is Star

New Wilmington took the lead, with Gilliland's goal, but Arnold tied the score on the next play with one from under the hoops. Sharp gave the college towners a one-point lead with a foul. Arnold retaliated with a field goal which gave Shenango a 4-3 advantage. McCrumb tossed a field goal to give New Wilmington a 5-4 lead. Polenick made good a foul try to tie the score at 5 all.

Arnold made another field goal to give Shenango a 7-5 lead. McCrumb made good a rebound to give New Wilmington a tie at 7-all. McCrumb added another two-plier to give New Wilmington a 9-7 lead. Craig made good a foul try to bring the score to 9-8. Craig, on the next play, made a field goal to give Shenango a 10-9 lead at half time.

Score Tied

At the start of the second half, Kaufman made good a foul to tie the score at 10-all. McCrumb added a field goal to give the college towners a 12-10 yead. Brown made good a foul try to bring the score to 12-11. Polenick tossed a field goal to put Shenango out front 13-12. Shenango started to freeze the ball, and with two minutes of the final quarter to be played, Brown threw a long field goal to give the Shenango team a 15-12 lead, which was held to the end.

East Brook Five Ahead 13 To 12

East Brook Athletics topped the St. Phillips and James church team of New Castle 13 to 12 in a floor game at the East Brook High floor. It was the ninth victory of the year for the East Brook quintet. East Brook led at the half 10 to 6. The St. Phillips and James team came back strong the third quarter to deadlock the count at 12-12. Stunkard made the winning point for East Brook by caging a foul.

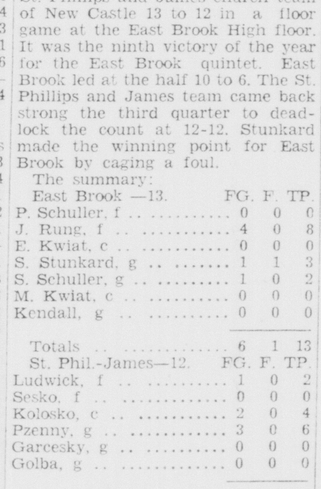
GIRLS FLOOR GAME

Seventh Grade girls basketball team of St. Mary's defeated the Eighth Grade girls 31 to 20 in a game played Saturday morning. The stars of the game were E. Nene, V. Travers and M. E. Wadlinger.

To Be Cardinal



Reports from Vatican City indicate that Monsignor Pietro Fumasoni-Biondi, Archbishop of Doclea and apostolic delegate to the United States, would be nominated a cardinal at the next consistory. It is said that the Archbishop's work in the United States created a very favorable impression on Pope Pius.

Wrestling Match Carded For "Y"

Johnstown "Y" Wrestling Team Will Meet New Castle March 16

Late Saturday night Henry McNicholas, physical director of the "Y" received word from Johnstown to the effect that the strong Johnstown "Y" wrestling team would appear in New Castle on Wednesday evening, March 16. This is a return engagement. New Castle was defeated last week at Johnstown.

The bouts here will be six in number at catch-weights. The following weights will be on the card: 115,125, 135, 145, 165, and 175.

It has been quite a stretch of time since the local "Y" wrestling team has appeared on the home floor, but they have been in strenuous training and will be out to avenge the setbacks suffered at Johnstown recently, and overcome the shadow on their crowns as state champions.

The last wrestling match held at the local "Y" drew a capacity crowd and extra-bleachers were required. It is expected that the New Castle-Johnstown matches will draw big. The starting time has been set at 8:30 o'clock. The admission price will be in accordance with the economic situation and will be the same as previous matches.

New Castle Boy Is Popular At Slippery Rock

Clark McClelland, Made Captain Of Floor Team, President Of Junior Class

Clark McClelland, a New Castle boy, was elected captain of the Slippery Rock college basketball squad for the season 1932-33, at a meeting of the basketball lettermen in the gym recently. The vote was unanimous.

The election of McClelland was well received by the sport followers around the school and town. "Mac" came here after playing two years of varsity basketball at the New Castle high school. He reported for the team in his freshman year and shown well, but was cut from the squad due to a misunderstanding about eligibility rules. He played good basketball in his sophomore year. This year he was high-score man for the green and white and is considered one of the most valuable players on the squad.

Clark's athletic ability is not limited to the floor game. He has played a good bit of semi-pro baseball, and has had some football experience. He was chosen recently to assist Ken Weslake, a local boy, in coaching the Slippery Rock high school gridders during the 1932 season.

Performing as well in the classroom as he does in athletic circles, "Mac" is a good student. He is a member of the Pi Sigma Pi honorary fraternity and is president of the junior class.

Under the capable direction of Coach Kerr Thompson and court leadership of McClelland, the college basketeers, losing only two men by graduation, Cataio and Whirl, are looking ahead with optimism toward the next court season.

Wed in Paris

Forging another link in the Franco-American alliance, Catherine Taliaferro Burrows, prominent in New York society, recently married Henri Pomonti, Parisian celebrity, in Paris, where they are shown just after the ceremony. The bride is a descendant of General John Burrows who was an aide to George Washington, while the groom is a son of the late Professor Ernest Pomonti, of the University of Paris.

Match King Suicide

Ivar Kreuger, head of the gigantic Swedish match trust and regarded as one of the most powerful industrial magnates in the world, was found dead in his home in Paris. A multi-millionaire, Kreuger was often referred to as the man who built up one of the largest individual corporations in the world on a tiny stick of wood.

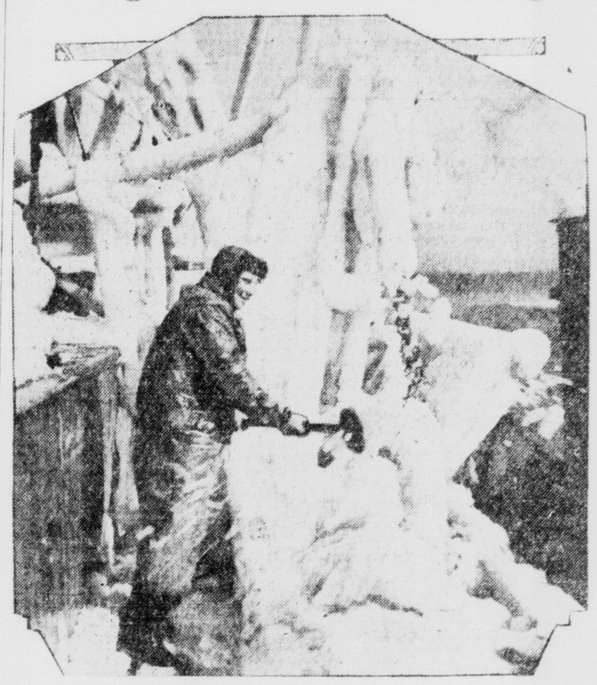
Disguised as an Iceberg



When the fishing schooner "Brookline" docked at her Boston pier after a trip to George's Banks in search of Friday's dinner for the good citizens of Massachusetts she was disguised in the ermine robes of Old King Winter himself. Her superstructure and rigging were coated to a depth of two inches with ice formed by the spray and intense cold of the raging gales she encountered at sea. Photo shows one of the crew hacking off the icy shell.

HOSPITAL NOTES

ELLWOOD CITY, Mar. 14—Discharged over the week-end: Mrs. Frank Calve of Ninth street.

Woman Shaking Off 'Weaker' Title

Milady's Gradual Invasion of Man's Field of Business and Sport a Challenge to His Physical Superiority.

Although the Woman's Bureau and the American Alliance of Civil Service Women are using up a lot of words and brain power trying to decide whether or not married women should be allowed to hold jobs during the depression, it is very unlikely that they can do anything about it. Gone are the days when woman meekly submitted to everything that was foisted upon her, shedding a few tears and letting it go at that. The woman of today is of a different calibre. She's capable of making up her own mind; she knows what she wants and goes right ahead and gets it—a quality that has of recent years brought her on a plane almost level physically and mentally with the once supreme male of the species. One need only glance at women's accomplishments in the field of sport to get an idea of how woman has pulled herself up by the bootstraps until she is almost in a position to challenge the lordly male in the matter of brawn and muscle. Stella Walsh, the Cleveland, Ohio, girl athlete, can cover the 100 yards in 10.8 seconds, a mark considered good by most male sprinters. Then there is Cora Livingston, of Cambridge, Mass., of Amazonian proportions, who wants to wrestle any woman in the world for the championship thereof. Babe Didrikson, of Texas, not only set a record for the broad jump, but can throw a baseball 268 feet, or a javelin 133 feet. Mabelle Reichardt, of Pasadena, is a shot-putter, and Lillian Copeland, of California, can sling the discus in a manner that is the envy of many males who wish they could do half as good. Thus it can be seen that the famous British author who recently remarked after a visit to America that we are breeding our women harder and our men softer did not make such a fanciful statement after all.

WHY PAY MORE THAN HOUSEHOLD'S LOW RATE?

The nationally known Household Loan Plan offers cash loans of $300 or less to husbands and wives at reasonable rates.

Loans above $100 and up to $300 are made at a rate less than the usual small loan rate.

Strictly confidential. Husband and wife only need sign. No endorsers. Quick service.

NEW YORK STOCKS

Stock Prices Today Inclined To Rally

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Mar. 14.—Securities identified with Ivar Kreuger broke wide open here today, reflecting the collapse in their prices in world markets following the suicide of the Swedish match king in Paris on Saturday. The rest of the market, however, rallied after an early decline.

Kreuger & Toll, the holding company he controlled, opened at 1⅞ on 150,000 shares, the largest single transaction in the history of the stock exchange. The price compares with a close of 5 on Saturday and its former bear market low of 4¾.

International Match, another Kreuger holding company, broke 6 points to 11½ and then rallied a point. International Match 5s of 1947 Gld at 38, off 11 points. Kreuger & Toll 5s broke to 36, off 12½ points. International Match 5s of 1931 were offered at 47, off 4, but there were no bids.

International Telephone, identified with the Kreuger interests through joint ownership of Ericsson Telephone, was depressed, losing a half point.

Kreuger & Toll issues lost about half their value in London, Paris and Berlin, unsettling the markets there.

Kreuger & Toll poured out on the tape in enormous volume after the opening with the volume for the day in this one issue promising to run at least 400,000 shares. The price hovered around 2.

Leading stocks like U. S. Steel, American Can, American Telephone, Allied Chemical and Dupont lost 1 to 2 points each but recovered a good part of their losses after the early selling had been absorbed. Trading in these issues was comparatively light. Auburn slumped more than 2 points but regained all its loss.

The showing made by Von Hindenburg in yesterday's German election was a sustaining factor to prices and brought strength in German bonds. The bond market generally showed a steady tone.

Commodities were dull and neglected. Cotton and Grains were easier but price changes were not significant.

Should Experience No Difficulty Getting Wheat Here Say Congressmen

By ARTHUR C. WIMER
Special Washington Correspondent of The New Castle News

WASHINGTON, Mar. 14.—Lawrence county should experience no difficulty in getting a part of the free wheat authorized by Congress some days ago, according to the opinion of several members of Congress.

When asked about the application for 1,000 bushels of the wheat filed by Secretary Orville Potter of the Lawrence county chapter, national headquarters of the Red Cross on Saturday said that wheat would not be supplied localities unless proof exists that an emergency prevails. The headquarters said that the need of Lawrence county would be determined from information to be submitted by Potter.

To Watch Developments

Told of this attitude of the Red Cross, several members of Congress said they intended to watch developments closely, and that if national headquarters showed any reluctance in handing out the grain and flour, the matter would be brought to the attention of the Senate and House. During debate of the bill authorizing the distribution of the wheat, several members expressed the opinion that the Red Cross might not hand out the grain freely enough, and at the suggestion of Representative Connery, Democrat of Massachusetts, the House went on record as favoring rapid and wide distribution of the grain.

All That Is Necessary

"If the local chapter of the Red Cross in Lawrence county feels that what is needed, that is all that is necessary," opined Representative Lonergan, Democrat of Connecticut, who sponsored the legislation authorizing the free wheat in the house. "I feel the wheat or flour should be given to the Lawrence county people without delay if the local chapter believes this necessary."

The national headquarters of the Red Cross expects distribution of the wheat and flour to commence this week.

NAME FOR SPECIES OF WESTERN PINE FOUND

(International News Service)

PORTLAND, Ore., Mar. 14.—Henceforth western yellow pine and the yellow pine from the southern states will no longer be confused, according to the U. S. forest service station here.

"Pinus ponderosa" has been substituted as the simplest name for the tree known as western yellow pine, yellow, red or white pine, bull and heavy pine, Oregon pine, Arizona soft pine, Mexican pine, and in England as "heavy-wooded pine".

Oregon has 35 billion board feet of ponderosa pine saw timber and Washington has 16 billion board feet according to federal foresters' lumber tally.

Rheumatic Sings Praise for Relief

Here's the Safe and Quick Way to Get Relief

No longer need you dope yourself with all sorts of remedies. Now you can get the German Specialist's prescription, Nurito, at the drug store. Sufferers from neuritis, rheumatism, sciatica, lumbago and neuralgia report amazingly quick relief. It works so fast some claim Nurito contains narcotics or opiates. But it does not, is guaranteed absolutely safe and harmless even for children to take. Helpless, bed-ridden, pain-racked, sleepless people from torturing pain are the ones who should try Nurito. Get a box from your druggist today. If the very first three powders do not drive away the most intense pain your money will be instantly refunded. Try Nurito today.

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle.

Among the unlisted germs extant is the germ of minstrelsy. Unlike the baccilus that causes epizootic and housemaid's knee, the germ of minstrelsy has never yet been isolated by the scientists, but it is a virulent thing. Once it attacks a victim he gets no rest and occasional appearances on a minstrel stage but serve to aggravate the condition of the patient.

Usually the germ attacks in the winter. In this respect it seems akin to the germ of grippe, colds and pneumonia, the only difference being that the patient doesn't have to spend any time in bed. Instead he spends his time on the street corners trying to organize a quartet.

Once a minstrel man, never the same again is the rule. Take Bert Sanford for instance. Or Davy Jones. Every winter finds them in the clutch of the minstrel germ and right now they are wondering if somebody doesn't want a nice fresh minstrel show put on.

They have one of the first requirements of a minstrel show—a quartet. A quartet is composed of three singers and a tenor, and now that Danny Jenkins is home they have the tenor. Ches Biddle is also home to boom out the basso and so with any kind of a break at all the boys are ready to spring a minstrel.

Sanford and Jones held the engineer up Saturday night until his knees were playing tag explaining that they seemed better than ever this year. All they need now is four end men, a couple of ballad singers, an interlocutor, a circle of chorus men, a tap dancer, an accordion player, an orchestra, a theatre and an audience to hold a minstrel.

At that it almost seems that the country is ready for the return of some of the old time minstrels. Can you think of any better evening's entertainment than to see Honey Boy Evans minstrel, or Al Fields, or Lew Dockstader? To hear Lassus White or William A. Thompson or Bert Swor again? To hear melodies that were whistleable and to sit thorugh an entire performance without once having to blush or apologize to your Aunt Maggie who happened to be with you?

Add signs of spring: Saw a bunch of forsythia yesterday. Not from any florist shop but from a yard. The sprigs had been cut a few days ago and placed in a bucket of water in the cellar.

Add signs of winter: A bunch of kids going out the street Saturday afternoon with their skates. For the first time in several years the streams and ponds are skatable (?) and the kids are making the most of it. Even some of the old timers are digging skates out of mothballs and stepping out.

No winter can really be classed as a 100 per cent success, however, until the roads permit a sleigh ride out to a farmhouse. Now there is a sport. Ten or 12 couples tucked away on a hay rack, with the bells double timing, and at the end of the trip an oyster stew large enough to fill a wash basin.

According to the best advices from Scott township, this cold snap will be appreciated next summer. Seems as though without such a cold snap the bugs and insects would have been thick but this weather has frozen them up.

If that's the case we can accept the weather in a better spirit, but it's a good bet that red ants and spiders will still be on hand to make merry in picnic potato salad next summer.

Someone has suggested that the New Castle high school basketball team might be named the Indians for Tuesday night. It was the Indians, you may recall, that took General Braddock out of the picture. Might give the boys names. Reiber could be renamed Sock-in-the-Hoop, Teplica could be named Little Mosquito, and either of the two Urams might be termed Chief Score-from-the-Field.

DIES IN AUTO ON WAY TO HOSPITAL

OIL CITY, Pa., Mar. 14.—David Lee Flockerzie, 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Flockerzie, died suddenly in an automobile while being removed from the family home in Pine Grove township to the hospital. The child had been ill two days with influenza.

BOY, 4, FATALLY SCALDED BY GRAVY

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Mar. 14.—Richard P. Krone, 4, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Krone, was scalded fatally today when he pulled a pan of hot gravy from the stove at the parental home.

ECZEMA

End It Once And For All For Only 35 Cents

Fiery, burning, running, itching Eczema can almost drive its victims mad. Isn't it a shame they don't know that even the first application of powerfully healing, cooling and soothing Peterson's Ointment immediately brings blessed relief. All itching, pain and burning stop—you can actually feel Peterson's start in to heal the infected skin.

Then after a few days faithful treatment, its remarkable skin-corrective medication heals and clears every crack in the raw, broken skin, restoring its natural health and a radiant, clear loveliness—no matter how long you've been troubled!

Eczema sufferers who've tried everything without success will find that one 35 cents box will end stubborn eczema. Druggists everywhere.

COMMON SENSE IS SECRET OF NEW REMEDY

Thousands are inquiring about this new, scientific preparation called World's Tonic. Sufferers, in despair for years, have had their health restored and give thanks today to World's Tonic for life itself.

Here is one of the thousands of case records which grateful men and women have filed in the office of the World's Medicine Company:

"It was born in Scotland," says Mr. Wm. McMaster of New Gabler, Pa. "There were twelve of us in the family and we lived in the hills outside of Glasgow. We were so poor that we could barely keep alive. But none of us ever knew what it was to have a day of sickness, even through the long dark Scotch winters. From November to April the snow piled deep drifts around our hut. We children hardly had clothes to cover our nakedness. We nearly starved and we nearly froze but we were never sick.

"When I was sixteen, I went to work in the steel mills at Glasgow. Hard Work, but I picked up weight and strength. In two years I saved enough money to come to McKeesport, Pennsylvania. I got a job right away in the steel mill here, and for a while I was the strongest man on our shift. The work was just like what I had been used to in Glasgow, and I supposed I would always stay strong and well. I did not realize that I was just like a transplanted tree. My system was breaking down for lack of the elements not furnished by American soil and air. I had stomach trouble with sharp pains in my back. I had to take physics every night to get my bowels to move. I lost weight and strength. The other men said I was lazy and they complained about me to the boss, and one day he laid me off.

"The drug store man at the corner near where I boarded told me about World's Tonic. I tried it and almost right away I felt my strength coming back. After using three bottles of World's Tonic all my old weakness was gone. My bowels moved naturally, I had no more pains in my back, and I put on twenty pounds of good, solid flesh. I am now stronger even than I was back in Glasgow. I understand now what the idea back of World's Tonic is. It is a wonderful new idea, but after all it is just plain common sense. We, none of us, are really native to this American soil. So our bodies will break down unless we strengthen them from time to time with elements brought from different parts of the world. World's Tonic helps to supply these elements. That's why it helps many of us in a way not many ordinary American medicines can."

World's Tonic is on sale at Eckerd's, McKees, Paisleys, Smith's, and other modern drug stores. (B-59)

Borough Manager At Jeanette, Pa., Resigns His Post

H. A. Guss, Borough Manager For Three Years Goes To Northampton, Pa.

(International News Service)

JEANETTE, Pa., Mar. 14.—H. A. Guss, borough manager here for the past three years and borough engineer at Punxsutawney for eleven years previous, today prepared to take up his duties as borough manager at Northampton, Pa.

Guss resigned his post here to take the new one, effective tomorrow, for which he was selected from 45 applicants.

David B. Johns Dies In Crafton

David B. Johns, well known political leader of Allegheny County, and known to many New Castle people, died at his home in Crafton, Pa., Saturday at the age of sixty.

Born in South Wales, Mr. Johns came to Pittsburgh with his parents at the age of ten. As a young man he became interested in politics and for many years had been a figure in the political arena of both the state and his own county of Allegheny. He served two terms in the General Assembly had been county chairman of Allegheny County and at the time of his death was serving as a referee for the State Workmen's Compensation Board. He had also served as a member of the Board for Assessment and Revision of county taxes. Funeral services will be held tonight at eight o'clock from his former home in Crafton with interment on Tuesday.

Some years ago Mr. Johns was married to Miss Agnes Wallace, daughter of the late Judge William D. Wallace of this county. Mrs. Johns preceded her husband in death shortly after the World War.

Chi Omega Girls Are Quartered At Hillside

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Mar. 14—The Prather house, chapter home for the Chi Omega sorority at Westminster college, which was completely gutted by fire Saturday morning, was first leased by the college from Miss Sarah Prather in 1927.

At that time it was a dormitory for 16 freshman girls, with Mrs. James Graham, mother of Professor R. X. Graham, as chaperon. The house was used as a freshman home during the 1927-28, 1928-29, 1929-30, 1930-31 years and last fall was assigned the Chi Omega sorority as its chapter house when the college made the Hillside, main women's dormitory, the freshman hall.

Mrs. Bertha Bay, an instructor in the secretarial course in the department of economics, has been chaperon of the house this year. She, together with the 10 members of Chi Omega quartered at the house, lost most of personal clothing and property in the fire.

Members of the sorority will be quartered temporarily in the Hillside dormitory. Other arrangements for the group may be made later.

CHIEF FOUND SON FAKE ALARM CULPRIT

(International News Service)

WEST HAVEN, Conn., Mar. 14.—There had been an epidemic of false alarms here. So when the fire appartus rolled back from the most recent fake call and the firemen announced that they had identified the man who pulled the box, Fire Chief Cameron was glad to hear it.

"Who was the gentleman?" he asked.

"Your son, John!" they told him.

Young Cameron, who is 22, is a lieutenant in another fire company. He was brought to police headquarters by his father and arrested on charges of turning in a false alarm.

It's easy to judge the worth of a cause. The sillier it is, the more enthusisatic its followers are.

How to Get Relief From Catarrh

If you have catarrh, catarrhal deafness or head noises due to catarrh, go to New Castle Drug, Eckerd's Kut Rate or your druggist and get 1 oz. of Parmint (Double Strength); take this home, add to it 1-4 pint of hot water and a little sugar. Take a tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucous stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to make, tastes pleasant and costs little. Every one who has catarrh should give this treatment a trial. You will probably find it is just what you need.

LITTLE BEAVER

Joe Knepp was a Beaver Falls visitor on Friday.

Clem Young was a New Castle shopper last week.

Paul Kenney was a New Castle shopper last week.

Charles Albright is suffering with an attack of lumbago.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Young were visitors in East Palestine, O., Thursday.

Luther Marshall, Jr., who has been ill with pneumonia is very much improved at this writing.

Mrs. Lester Moore and daughter of Little Beaver are visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Covelinka, of Beaver Falls.

Awful thought! Suppose some debunker comes along and proves that Byrd didn't drop those fool bags on the way to the Pole after all.

CHAMPION HEN DOESN'T LAY EGGS ON SUNDAYS

(International News Service)

HAMM, Germany, Mar. 14.—Even a world champion hen respects the Sabbath, it was revealed on a farm near here. The now famous Rhode Island Red hen layed 308 eggs last year as officially announced by the state chicken farm of the department of agriculture in Westfalia.

She missed only Sundays and holidays and produced 693 ounces of eggs or eight times her own weight. The eggs averaged 2.23 ounces.

Sheriff's Sale

By virtue of a writ of Levari Facias, having been issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Lawrence County, Pennsylvania, and to me directed, there will be exposed to Public Sale, at the Court House, at New Castle, Lawrence County, Pennsylvania, on Monday, April 4th, 1932, at 10 o'clock A. M. (Eastern Standard Time). The following described property, to-wit:

All the right, title, interest and claim of the defendants, of, in and to all that certain piece, parcel or lot of land situate, lying and being in Neshannock Township, Lawrence County, Pennsylvania, being more particularly bounded and described as follows, to-wit: Beginning at a point on a public road leading to the Eastbrook Fording, said point being the North-east corner of lands hereby conveyed and mortgaged; thence South one and one half (1½) degrees West along lands now or formerly of Mary L. McKee; a distance of seventy-four and six tenths (74.6) perches to a post; thence North eighty-nine and one-half (89½) degrees West along lands now or formerly of Boston a distance of eight hundred eighty seven (887) feet to a point; thence North a distance of ninety (90) feet to a point, thence West by line parallel with the Southern boundary of the said tract, in a Westerly direction, a distance of sixty-seven (67) feet, more or less, to the public road leading from New Castle to Eastbrook Station; thence along center line of said Public road, following the various turns and meanderings, in a Northerly and North-easterly direction, to the north side of the land leading from the said Public Road to the buildings of the mortgagors; thence along the North side of said lane, in an Easterly direction, a distance of two hundred eighty (280) feet to a point; thence in a Northerly direction along line of lands now of William P. Smith, Alice R. Jessop and Wilber T. Mayberry, a distance of four hundred ninety-nine (499) feet, more or less to a point on the Public Road leading to the Eastbrook Fording, said point being ninety-five (95) feet East from the point where the said road intersects with the New Castle-Eastbrook Public Road, thence along the center line of said public road leading to the Eastbrook Fording, South eighty-nine and one-fourth (89¼) degrees East, a distance of eleven hundred sixty two (1162) feet, more or less, to the place of beginning. Being the same premises conveyed to Mary E. Smith one of the mortgagors, by deed of William George McKee, et. al., dated January 10th, 1925, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Lawrence County, Pennsylvania, in Deed Book Vol. 252, page 330, excepting and reserving therefrom however, four certain parcels of land heretofore conveyed by the mortgagors, to-wit: a lot to Alice R. Jessop, which deed is recorded in Lawrence County in Deed Book Vol. 255, page 214, a narrow strip of land to Alice R. Jessop, which deed is recorded in Lawrence County in Deed Book Vol. 253, page 486; a parcel of land to Alice R. Jessop, which deed is recorded in Deed Book, Vol. 258, page 532, a lot to William P. Smith, which deed is recorded in Deed Book, Vol. 255, page 42, and also a lot of land in the South-west corner thereof, having a frontage of ninety (90) feet on the Eastbrook-New Castle Public Road, and extending back therefrom, of even width, a distance of three hundred sixty-seven (367) feet, which said lots are excluded in the discription of the property hereby mortgaged, as above set forth.

The premises hereby mortgaged contain thirty-three (33) acres more or less.

IMPROVEMENTS: Having thereon erected one bungalow containing five rooms, furnace, cellar cemented, composition roof, premises in medium repair.

Taken as the property of William P. Smith and Walter J. Smith, Executors under last Will and Testament of Mary Ellan Smith Dec'd. and William P. Smith, Alice R. Jessop; Bertha S. Houston, Otis E. Smith, William H. Smith, Walter J. Smith, Clifford C. Smith and Amy W. Smith and Walter J. Smith Testamentary Guardian of Amy W. Smith Legatees under last will and testament of Mary Ellan Smith, Deceased at the suit of William M. Vosler.

NEW YORK STOCKS

Stock Prices Today Inclined To Rally

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Mar. 14.—Securities identified with Ivar Kreuger broke wide open here today, reflecting the collapse in their prices in world markets following the suicide of the Swedish match king in Paris on Saturday. The rest of the market, however, rallied after an early decline.

Kreuger & Toll, the holding company he controlled, opened at 1⅞ on 150,000 shares, the largest single transaction in the history of the stock exchange. The price compares with a close of 5 on Saturday and its former bear market low of 4¾.

International Match, another Kreuger holding company, broke 6 points to 11½ and then rallied a point. International Match 5s of 1947 Gld at 38, off 11 points. Kreuger & Toll 5s broke to 36, off 12½ points. International Match 5s of 1931 were offered at 47, off 4, but there were no bids.

International Telephone, identified with the Kreuger interests through joint ownership of Ericsson Telephone, was depressed, losing a half point.

Kreuger & Toll issues lost about half their value in London, Paris and Berlin, unsettling the markets there.

Kreuger & Toll poured out on the tape in enormous volume after the opening with the volume for the day in this one issue promising to run at least 400,000 shares. The price hovered around 2.

Leading stocks like U. S. Steel, American Can, American Telephone, Allied Chemical and Dupont lost 1 to 2 points each but recovered a good part of their losses after the early selling had been absorbed. Trading in these issues was comparatively light. Auburn slumped more than 2 points but regained all its loss.

The showing made by Von Hindenburg in yesterday's German election was a sustaining factor to prices and brought strength in German bonds. The bond market generally showed a steady tone.

Commodities were dull and neglected. Cotton and Grains were easier but price changes were not significant.
